Reflective Authenticity Rethinking The Project Of Modernity:

Reflective Authenticity Alessandro Ferrara,2002-09-11 Reflective Authenticity Rethinking the Project of Modernity is a challenging consideration of what remains of ambitious Enlightenment ideas such as democracy freedom and universality in the wake of relativist postmodern thought Do clashes over gender race and culture mean that universal notions such as justice or rights no longer apply outside our own communities Do our actions lose their authenticity if we act on principles that transcend the confines of our particular communities Alessandro Ferrara proposes a path out of this impasse via the notion of reflective authenticity Drawing on Aristotle Kants concept of reflective judgement and Heideggers theory of reflexive self grounding Reflective Authenticity Rethinking the Project of Modernity takes a fresh look at the state of Critical Theory today and the sustainability of postmodern politics

Artistic Truth Lambert Zuidervaart,2004-10-18 It is unfashionable to talk about artistic truth Yet the issues traditionally addressed under that term have not disappeared Indeed questions concerning the role of the artist in society the relationship between art and knowledge and the validity of cultural interpretation have intensified Lambert Zuidervaart challenges intellectual fashions He proposes a new critical hermeneutics of artistic truth that engages with both analytic and continental philosophies and illuminates the contemporary cultural scene People turn to the arts as a way of finding orientation in their lives communities and institutions But philosophers hamstrung by their own theories of truth have been unsuccessful in accounting for this common feature in our lives This book portrays artistic truth as a process of imaginative disclosure in which expectations of authenticity significance and integrity prevail Understood in this way truth becomes central to the aesthetic and social value of the arts

Becoming Donor-Conceived Amelie Baumann,2021-11-27 While it has been argued that anonymity in gamete donation has been brought to an end by legal changes and technological developments Amelie Baumann suggests that this is in fact still in transformation By focusing on the narratives of those who were conceived with anonymously donated gametes in the UK and Germany she examines this transformative process and the role which donor conceived persons play in it This book shows that it is not someone s decision to procreate that turns being donor conceived into a meaningful categorisation Rather kinship knowledge gets activated by the donor conceived in specific ways for being donor conceived to become a powerful identification

Political Refugees Armin Danesh,Alison Assiter,2022-03-14 Many books about refugees focus on their trauma loss and victimhood Refugees are often regarded as problems for governments and social services in the countries where they seek asylum This unique book presents a very different view Coupling existential themes with politics and psychology Political Refugees tells the story of a number of Iranian political refugees through case studies and through Armin Danesh s own life story Danesh has more than three decades of experience of working with refugees who have survived trauma and who continue to work for the causes close to their hearts All the refugees presented here were politically engaged and suffered as a consequence In their new home country however they not only survived but were reborn and forged new opportunities The book demonstrates people s capacity to transform themselves through crisis The stories told will be invaluable for organizations or individuals who study or work with refugees or anyone who has suffered extreme adversity Literature

Khawaja,2016-12-02 Keen insight reveals existentialism as one more chapter in Christianity s history Journal of the American Academy of Religion The Religion of Existence reopens an old debate on an important question What was existentialism At the heart of existentialism Noreen Khawaja argues is a story about secular thought experimenting with the traditions of European Christianity This book explores how a distinctly Protestant asceticism formed the basis for the chief existentialist ideal personal authenticity which is reflected in approaches ranging from Kierkegaard s religious theory of the self to Heidegger s phenomenology of everyday life to Sartre s global mission of atheistic humanism Through these three philosophers she argues we observe how ascetic norms have shaped one of the twentieth century s most powerful ways of thinking about identity and difference the idea that the true self is not simply given but something that each of us is responsible for producing Engaging with many central figures in modern European thought this book is of value to philosophers and historians of European philosophy scholars of modern Christianity and those working on problems at the intersection of religion and modernity Exploring Positive Identities and Organizations Laura Morgan Roberts,Jane E.

The Force of the Example Alessandro Ferrara, 2008-06-12 During the twentieth century the view that assertions and norms are valid insofar as they respond to principles independent of all local and temporal contexts came under attack from two perspectives the partiality of translation and the intersubjective constitution of the self understood as responsive to recognition Defenses of universalism have by and large taken the form of a thinning out of substantive universalism into various forms of proceduralism Alessandro Ferrara instead launches an entirely different strategy for transcending the particularity of context without contradicting our pluralistic intuitions a strategy centered on the exemplary universalism of judgment Whereas exemplarity has long been thought to belong to the domain of aesthetics this book explores the other uses to which it can be put in our philosophical predicament especially in the field of politics After defining exemplarity and describing how something unique can possess universal significance Ferrara addresses the force exerted by exemplarity the nature of the judgment that discloses exemplarity and the way in which the force of the example can bridge the difference between various contexts Drawing not only on Kant's Critique of the Power of Judgment but also on the work of Hannah Arendt John Rawls Ronald Dworkin and Jürgen Habermas Ferrara outlines a view of exemplary validity that is applicable to today's central philosophical issues including public reason human rights radical evil sovereignty republicanism and liberalism and religion in the public sphere

The Theory and Practice of Recognition Onni Hirvonen, Heikki J. Koskinen, 2022-09-23 This volume presents new essays on the theory and practice of recognition In order to retain its overall plausibility as a critical social theory contemporary recognition theory needs to be able to successfully combine theory with real life perspectives in both contemporary and historical contexts Contemporary recognition theory has developed into an established and active multidisciplinary research programme The chapters in this volume have two main purposes First they engage in theoretical development of the contemporary theories of recognition They explore the conceptual histories and the environments of recognition as well as the connection between recognition and authenticity emancipation and social ontology Second they connect the theoretical insights of contemporary recognition with analyses of contemporary and historical social practices These contributions explore themes such as populism and polarization models of harmful invisibilization and social ignorance the problem of evil and suffering and social justice phenomena such as the MeToo movement The Theory and Practice of Recognition will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in social and political philosophy social ontology political theory and sociology

Aging and Self-Realization Hanne Laceulle, 2018-11-08 Dominant cultural narratives about later life dismiss the value senior citizens hold for society In her cultural philosophical critique Hanne Laceulle outlines counter narratives that acknowledge both potentials and vulnerabilities of later life She draws on the rich philosophical tradition of thought about self realization and explores the significance of ethical concepts essential to the process of growing old such as autonomy authenticity and virtue These counter narratives aim to support older individuals in their search for a meaningful age identity while they make society recognize its senior members as valued participants and moral agents of their own lives

The Individual without Passions Elena Pulcini, 2012-08-09 The Individual without Passions Modern Individualism and the Loss of the Social Bond offers an innovative look at an extremely timely and important issue individualism from the point of view of a theory of passions This book underlines the importance of the problem of the passions in both forming individual identity and building the social bond Drawing inspiration from classic authors that represent fundamental milestones along the route of modern individualism from Montaigne to Hobbes from Locke to Smith from Rousseau to Tocqueville The Individual without Passions puts forward new hypotheses that contrast with the consolidated views of contemporary reflection both modern and postmodern Elena Pulcini argues that passions are crucial not only when they are strong homo oeconomicus but also when absent or weak homo democraticus in both cases producing pathological effects on the Self and the social bond Finally this book underlines that the image of the modern individual does not end with the egoistical passions and that it is possible to reactivate empathetic and solidaristic passions furthermore it proposes the hypothesis that the solidaristic passions go to fight the egoistical passions This hypothesis seems confirmed and is most evident in the phenomenon of the gift as interpreted by Marcel Mauss and his contemporary heirs the hidden testimony of a desire for belonging which enables us to propose a new figure of the individual homo reciprocus

Models of European Civil Society Adam Jarosz, Katarzyna Kačka, 2018-11-12 The following volume is devoted to the issues of European models of civil societies The aim of the authors

is not to exhaust the whole topic but to bring forward some studies related to the civil society both in the historical but also present perspective Civil society is an important factor in a well functioning state and crucial for developing a real active and conscious community which is able to control the state and its servants Even more importantly when the state fails to react to negative developments or leaders misuse their power to enforce it in fulfilling its duties and in the most radical or dramatic cases to replace it or change the governors Democratic order gives the society enough tools to do this and the internet social media and other new means of communication improve the level of self organisation and shorten the time for potential reactions

The Sacred and the Political Elisabetta Brighi, Antonio Cerella, 2016-07-28 What is the relationship between the sacred and the political transcendence and immanence religion and violence And how has this complex relation affected the history of Western political reason In this volume an international group of scholars explore these questions in light of mimetic theory as formulated by Ren Girard 1923 2015 one of the most original thinkers of our time From Aristotle and his idea of tragedy passing through Machiavelli and political modernity up to contemporary biopolitics this work provides an indispensable guide to those who want to assess the thorny interconnections of sacrality and politics in Western political thought and follow an unexplored yet critical path from ancient Greece to our post secular condition While looking at the past this volume also seeks to illuminate the future relevance of the sacred secular divide in the so called age of globalization

The Literature of Reconstruction Wolfgang Funk, 2017-03-23 Winner of the 2016 ESSE Junior Scholar Book Award in Literatures in the English Language The Literature of Reconstruction argues for the term and concept of postmillennial reconstruction to fill the gap left by the decline of postmodernism and deconstruction as useful cultural and literary categories Wolfgang Funk shows how this notion emerges from the theoretical and philosophical development that led to the demise of postmodernism by relating it to the idea of authenticity immediate experience that eludes direct representation In addition he provides a clear formal framework with which to identify and classify the features of reconstructive literature by updating the narratological category of metafiction originally established in the 1980s Based on Werner Wolf's observation of a metareferential turn in contemporary arts and media he illustrates how the specific use of metareference results in a renegotiation of the specific patterns of literary communication and claims that this renegotiation can be profitably described with the concept of reconstruction To substantiate this claim in the second half of the book Funk discusses narrative texts that illustrate this transition from postmodern deconstruction to postmillennial reconstruction The analyses take in distinguished and prize winning writers such as Dave Eggers Julian Barnes Jennifer Egan and Jasper Fforde The broad scope of authors featuring writers from the US as well as the UK underlines the fact that the reconstructive tendencies and strategies Funk diagnoses are of universal significance for the intellectual and cultural self image of the global North
