Building a New China in Cinema Laikwan Pang, 2002 Building a New China in Cinema introduces English readers for the first time to one of the most exciting left wing cinema traditions in the world This unique book explores the history ideology and aesthetics of China's left wing cinema movement a quixotic film culture that was as political as commercial as militant as sensationalist Originating in the 1930s it marked the first systematic intellectual involvement in Chinese cinema In this era of turmoil and idealism the movement's films were characterized by fantasies of heroism intertwined with the inescapable spell of impotency thus exposing the contradictions of the filmmakers underlying ideology as their political and artistic agendas alternately fought against or catered to the taste and viewing habits of a popular audience Political cinema became a commercially successful industry resulting in a film culture that has never been replicated Drawing on detailed archival research Pang demonstrates that this cinema movement was a product of the era's social economic and political discourses The author offers a close analysis of many rarely seen films richly illustrated with over eighty stills collected from the Beijing Film Archive With its original conceptual approach and rich use of primary sources this book will be of interest not only to scholars and fans of Chinese cinema but to those who study the relationship between cinema and modernity Love the Wild Swan Judith

Edwards,2016-10-04 Love the Wild Swan is the culmination of thirty years of clinical and teaching experience undertaken by child and adolescent psychoanalytic psychotherapist Judith Edwards Along with new material the book consists of previously published papers spanning Edwards's entire career which have been carefully selected to chart the journey that every clinician and human being makes from babyhood to adult life Edwards offers an example of how the evolution of meanings occur and how lifelong learning about the self and the other takes place The book is divided into four parts with sections on observation clinical work teaching theory and links between these ideas and ongoing life in the form of the arts through poetry film and sculpture Love the Wild Swan will be of interest to practitioners and clinicians as well as appealing to anyone in the field of mental health who wishes to reflect on the nature of human development and growth Global Movie
