Copy This Book! Paul J. Heald,2020-11-24 In Copy This Book Paul J Heald draws on a vast knowledge of copyright scholarship and a deep sense of irony to explain what s gone wrong with copyright in the twenty first century Distilling extensive empirical data to clearly show the implications of copyright laws and doctrine for public welfare he illustrates his findings with lighthearted references to familiar and obscure works and their creators and sometimes their creators oddball relations Among the questions he tackles How does copyright deter composers from writing new songs Why are so many famous photographs unprotected orphans and how does Getty Images get away with licensing them What can the use of music in movies tell us about the proper length of the copyright term How do publishers get away with claiming rights in public domain works and extracting unmerited royalties from the public Heald translates piles of data complex laws and mysterious economics equipping readers with the tools for judging past and future copyright law Kicking at the Darkness Brian J. Walsh, 2011-12-01 For forty years singer and songwriter Bruce Cockburn has been writing beautifully evocative music Bestselling author and respected theologian Brian Walsh has followed Cockburn's work for years and has written and spoken often on his art In this creative theological and cultural engagement Walsh reveals the imaginative depth and uncompromising honesty of the artist's Christian spirituality Cockburn offers hope in the midst of doubt struggle failure and anger indeed the sentiment of kicking at the darkness is at the heart of his spirituality This book engages the rich imagery of Cockburn's lyrics as a catalyst for shaping and igniting a renewed Christian imagination Copyright Joyce Leaffer, 2003-12-01
