The Strategic Management of E-Learning Support Franziska Zellweger Moser, Preparing School Leaders for the 21st Century Stephan Gerhard Huber, 2004-08-02 The quality and success of schools depend upon school leadership Increasingly in many countries worldwide this belief has led to designing and implementing appropriate training and development programs for educational leaders In an international comparative research project current school leader training and development programs in fifteen countries across Europe Asia Australia and North America are analyzed compared and discussed Preparing School Leaders for the 21st Century provides insights and constructive ideas for those planning and carrying out school leadership development in different countries and those conducting research in this field Part one in the book reflects on roles tasks competences and conceptions of school leadership exploring the changing context in which school leaders find themselves focusing on the new demands on the school leaders and suitable leadership theories Part two provides a comparative discussion of the various leadership development models identifying similarities and differences based on a set of criteria selected and going beyond a mere juxtaposition In describing common issues and challenges it also looks for common solutions and considers what the different countries might be able to learn from each other and successfully transfer Part three identifies current international trends deduced from these programs Nineteen recommendations for designing future programs are outlined and instructive examples of best and promising practice are given Part four comprises well structured country reports which provide information about the education system and school system of those countries about recent changes and their impact on school leadership about the overall school leader training and development approach

Educause Leadership Strategies, The "E" Is for Everything Richard N. Katz, 2000-05-31 E commerce e business and e education are now a necessary part of higher education This book outlines the major opportunities challenges and risks facing institutions of higher education as they tackle this complex competitive and expensive shift in educational delivery Renewal Harold Kwalwasser, 2012-03-16 Harold Kwalwasser has put together a call to action for education reform that makes a clear case for what has to be done in order to educate all children to their full potential He visited forty high performing and transforming school districts charters parochial and private schools to understand why they have succeeded where others have failed The analysis in Renewal Remaking America's Schools for the Twenty First Century brings together all of the necessary changes in one dynamic strategy Many schools even though facing seemingly impossible odds have succeeded brilliantly But their histories also reflect that there are neither silver bullets or demons The heart of successful reform is systemic change which requires the patience understanding and commitment of every adult who has a role in the process from parents and taxpayers to the school board members superintendents and teachers and on to state legislators and members of Congress Renewal offers a clear picture of how to move away from the mass production style of education that most schools offered throughout the twentieth century to a new more innovative and flexible model that can meet this country s promise of truly educating every child and preparing each of them for the challenges ahead Hear from the author in this 5 minute video on YouTube EDUCAUSE REVIEW MARK LUKER,2000
