Renoir And His Contemporaries:

Renoir and His Contemporaries Franz Wunderlich, 1989

Alfredo Boulton and His Contemporaries Ariel

Jiménez, 2008 Alfredo Boulton 1908 1995 was Venezuela's foremost cultural and aesthetic observer of the 20th century. An art critic, cultural historian, and photographer, he was highly influential in the development of modernist art and discourse and of cultural self-definition in Venezuela and the surrounding region. Boulton's diverse contributions serve as a point of departure in this remarkable selection of art historical and critical texts by many of the prominent Latin American thinkers of this period, figures whose works and ideas helped to shape the face of contemporary Venezuela. Through the manifestos, correspondences, and critical writings of these notable voices of the day, this anthology traces Venezuela's struggle toward modernity and toward a successful autonomous identity on the international cultural scene. In addition to historical writings, the volume includes newly written critical and explanatory essays by contemporary scholars providing context and insight to these significant texts that have become constant reference points for generations of artists, critics, and art historians.
