Renovating Holiness Thomas Jay Oord, Joshua Broward, 2015-02-03 This book is a call for change Even more it calls for open conversation about change For too long many in the Church of the Nazarene have considered the doctrine of holiness off limits a sacred cow impervious to all forces of cultural modification and theological renewal It's time for a real change because the church needs renovation These 100 essays from Millennial and Xer leaders explore how holiness might be understood and lived today

Renovate Léonce B. Crump, Jr., 2016-02-16 An Atlanta pastor describes how individuals and churches can become agents for spiritual and cultural renewal in urban contexts God is not wiping this world away He is in the midst of renovating it Léonce Crump lead pastor of Renovation Church in the urban core of Atlanta invites you to do what God did when He wanted to make a difference in this world move in Whether you're a pastor looking to plant a church a missionary preparing to serve in a far off land a family preparing to move into a new community or a follower of Jesus simply looking to engage more deeply in your current neighborhood Léonce reveals how our agendas can often sabotage achieving real change in our world Léonce takes you on a journey to understand what he calls the ministry of presence which he himself learned the hard way after planting a church in one of the most violent areas of Atlanta Léonce and his family found that before we can preach or reach others we must first know the story of a place and its people especially since skin color cultural norms and economic status often isolate us more than bringing us together
