Report On The State Of The European Union 2003-2004:

Report on the State of the European Union E. Laurent, Jacques Le Cacheux, David Jasper, 2014-12-19 This volume is the fourth instalment of the Report on the state of the European Union series It shows that if the EU does not want to be ruled by crisis any longer it must invest in sustainability political economic social and environmental Europe must turn this elusive and ever threatening crisis into a chosen and meaningful transition Agriculture and Eu Enlargement: Seventeenth Report of 2003-2004 Report, Together with Formal Minutes, Oral and Written Evidence Jack Michael, 2004 Agriculture plays a larger role in the economies of the new Member states of the EU than it does in EU 15 There have thus been fears of the market being flooded by cheap agricultural exports and controversy about the extension of CAP payments This report therefore looks at the impact of enlargement on agriculture both in the new Member states and in the UK It concludes that structural fragmentation and the lack of capital investment mean that the new Member states are not in a position to undermine EU agricultural markets However there are concerns about the quality of inspection and food quality For the UK the Committee think that enlargement is more of a challenge than a threat especially if the government does more to help promote UK food exports and investments The Global Competitiveness Report 2003-2004 World Economic Forum, 2004 The Global Competitiveness Report 2003-2004 is the 24th of the World Economic Forum's annual rankings of the world's leading economies Written in a non technical language and style this report aims to appeal to a broad audience consisting of policy makers business leaders and academics The Rise and Fall of the EU's Constitutional Treaty Finn Laursen, 2008-07-31 This book analyses the EU's Constitutional Treaty which emerged in draft form from the European Convention in the summer of 2003 and which was finalised by an Intergovernmental Conference IGC in June 2004 It describes the main novelties of the treaty and looks at policies of important actors Member States and Community actors the Commission and European Parliament and the roles played by the Convention and the Italian and Irish Presidencies during the process of deliberation and negotiation that produced the treaty It further studies the failure of ratification in France and the Netherlands and the implications for the process of European integration of this failure It finally touches on the question whether a constitutional equilibrium has been reached Since the new Lisbon Treaty negotiated in 2007 contains much of what was in the Constitutional Treaty the analyses of the book remain pertinent for this latest EU treaty European Union Law Q and A 2003-2004 Mike Cuthbert, 2003-02-26 The terminology of and general approach to European Union Law are not usually associated with the UK common law tradition Thus many examination or assessment techniques developed by students are challenged Cambridge Yearbook of European Legal Studies, Vol 6, 2003-2004 John Bell, Claire Kilpatrick, 2005-03-29 The Cambridge Yearbook of European Legal Studies provides a forum for the scrutiny of significant issues in European Union Law the Law of the Council of Europe and Comparative Law with a European dimension and particularly those which have come to the fore during the year preceding publication The contributions appearing in the collection are commissioned by the Centre for European Legal Studies CELS Cambridge which is the research Centre of Cambridge University Law Faculty specialising in European legal issues The papers presented are all at the cutting edge of the fields which they address and reflect the views of recognised experts drawn from the University world legal practice and the civil services of both the EU and its Member States Inclusion of the comparative dimension brings a fresh perspective to the study of European law and highlights the effects of globalisation of the law more generally and the resulting cross fertilisation of norms and ideas that has occurred among previously sovereign and separate legal orders The Cambridge Yearbook of European Legal Studies is an invaluable resource for those wishing to keep pace with legal developments in the fast moving world of European integration

Dismantling Defunct Ships in the Uk, Eighteenth Report of Session 2003-2004, Report, Together with Formal Minutes, Oral and Written Evidence Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Environment, Food and Rural Affairs Committee, 2004 It is estimated that worldwide about 700 large commercial vessels have to be scrapped each year as they reach the end of their working life Much of the material they are made from can be recycled but many ships also contain hazardous materials such as asbestos PCBs and waste oils which need to be disposed of safely The Committee's report considers how defunct ships are dismantled and why most are currently dismantled in developing countries mostly in Asia health and safety protection for workers and environmental protection standards the international regulatory framework including legislation such as the Basel Convention and EC regulations IMO guidelines and enforcement problems the principles of responsible ship recycling the Government's approach to ship recycling and a UK ship recycling industry Findings include that the Government has an important role to play in ensuring this issue receives sufficient international priority particularly during the UK's forthcoming EU Presidency and chairmanship of the G8 as well as at home in helping persuade UK based shipowners to arrange for their vessels to be disposed of responsibly As a first step it should ensure that all naval and other publicly owned vessels are dismantled to the highest health safety and environmental standards
