Representing Woman Ruth Bliss Phillips, 1995 Masquerades in African Society Walter E. A. Van Beek, Harrie M. Leyten, 2023 What is the meaning of masks and masquerades in African traditions and how can we understand their role in rituals and performances Why do we find masks in some African regions and not in others and what does this mask habitat say about the general dynamics of masquerades in Africa Though masks are among the most famous art icons of Africa exploration of their uses and the way in which they articulate social characteristics of African societies has been underexamined This book takes an anthropological perspective on the phenomenon of masquerades on the African continent to show how mask rituals are an integral part of African indigenous religions and societies and are informed by and linked to specific types of social and ecological conditions Having established the commonalities of mask rituals and a mask typology the authors look at the varieties of mask performances and the types of rituals in which masks function in rites of passage and in rituals of gender power and identity Cannibalism Myths, Empire, and Identity in Colonial Sierra Leone Katrina HB Keefer, 2024-11-25 In 1913 Sierra Leone bore witness to a Special Court convened to hear cases of cannibalism Described as Human Leopards those accused of ritually killing and eating others were associated with a criminal group and in the wake of the cases many accused and convicted Human Leopards were executed or exiled from the colony Contemporary writers described these events in the rhetoric of the civilized world triumphing over the barbaric and newspapers of the period wallowed in the lurid idea of shapeshifting cannibals lurking to murder and devour the innocent Cannibalism Myths Empire and Identity in Colonial Sierra Leone by Katrina HB Keefer offers new perspectives on these trials delving closely into the transcripts of the 1913 Human Leopard cases Through careful analysis of evidence and modern scholarship it s clear that cannibalism was never at play in these murder cases and Keefer presents a complex web of judicial overreach colonial ambitions xenophobic fears socio political turmoil animals whose habitats were being encroached upon and powerful initiation societies Female Voices from an Ewe Dance-drumming Community in Ghana James Burns, 2017-07-05 Ewe dance drumming has been extensively studied throughout the history of ethnomusicology but up to now there has not been a single study that addresses Ewe female musicians James Burns redresses this deficiency through a detailed ethnography of a group of female musicians from the Dzigbordi community dance drumming club from the rural town of Dzodze located in South Eastern Ghana Dzigbordi was specifically chosen because of the author's long association with the group members and because it is part of a genre known as adekede or female songs of redress where women musicians critique gender relations in society Burns uses audio and video interviews recordings of rehearsals and performances and detailed collaborative analyses of song texts dance routines and performance practice to address important methodological shifts in ethnomusicology that outline a more humanistic perspective of music cultures. This perspective encompasses the inter linkages between history social processes and individual creative artists The voices of Dzigbordi women provide us not only with a more complete picture of Ewe music making they further allow us to better understand the relationship between culture social life and individual creativity The book will therefore appeal to those interested in African Studies Gender Studies and Oral Literature as well as ethnomusicology Includes documentary on the downloadable resources Intellectual Tradition Derrick P.
