Reproduction of Death Valley in '49 William Lewis Manly, 1977 Subject Catalog Library of Congress, Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1980 Country Never Trod Michael D. Kane, 2022-09-01 William Lewis Manly was a forty niner explorer and humanitarian whose story most people have never heard Born in Vermont William Lewis Manly was drawn out west by the lure of gold Previous scholarship claims that the Yankee frontiersman floated only 290 miles down the Green River to the Uinta Basin but author Michael D Kane s research of primary source materials led him to the conclusion that Manly actually traveled 415 miles all the way to what is now Green River Utah This would make Manly the first to explore much of the Green River by boat twenty years before John Wesley Powell s famous expedition Determined to prove his theory and establish Manly s legacy as a trailblazer Kane conducted research and then built his own wooden canoes and made the trip tracing Manly s footsteps and comparing notes with the earlier traveler Country Never Trod follows Manly s little known expedition down the Green River and his overland trek through some of the most desolate stretches of Utah interspersed with Kane s journal entries and photographs documenting his own trip Death Valley in '49 William Lewis Manly, 2018-10-16 Death Valley in 49 Volume 1 By William Lewis Manly Autobiography of a pioneer detailing his life from a humble home in the green mountains to the gold mines of California and particularly reciting the sufferings of the band of men women and children who gave Death Valley its name Subject Catalog, 1978 Library of Congress, 1978 A Cultural Resource Overview for the Amargosa-Mojave Basin Planning Units Claude N. Warren, Martha C. Knack, Elizabeth Warren, 1980 Death Valley '49ers Frank F. Latta, 1979 Stories of the early pioneers who crossed Death Valley in the 1840s The author interviewed survivors or their descendents Death Valley and the Amargosa Richard E. Lingenfelter, 1988-01-11 This is the history of Death Valley where that bitter stream the Amargosa dies It embraces the whole basin of the Amargosa from the Panamints to the Spring Mountains from the Palmettos to the Avawatz And it spans a century from the earliest recollections and the oldest records to that day in 1933 when much of the valley was finally set aside as a National Monument This is the story of an illusory land of the people it attracted and of the dreams and delusions they pursued the story of the metals in its mountains and the salts in its sinks of its desiccating heat and its revitalizing springs and of all the riches of its scenery and lore the story of Indians and horse thieves lost argonauts and lost mine hunters prospectors and promoters miners and millionaires stockholders and stock sharps homesteaders and hermits writers and tourists But mostly this is the story of the illusions the illusions of a shortcut to the gold diggings that lured the forty niners of inescapable deadliness that hung in the name they left behind of lost bonanzas that grew out of the few nuggets they found of immeasurable riches spread by hopeful prospectors and calculating con men and of impenetrable mysteries concocted by the likes of Scotty These and many lesser illusions are the heart of its history Pony Express Courier , 1949 Grit and Gold Jean Johnson, 2018-11-01 No other Western settlement story is more famous than the Donner Party s ill fated journey through the Sierra Nevada Mountains But a few years later and several hundred miles south another group faced a similar situation just as perilous Scrupulously researched and documented Grit and Gold tells the story of the Death Valley Jayhawkers of 1849 and the young men who traveled by wagon and foot from Iowa to the California gold rush The Jayhawkers journey took them through the then uncharted and unnamed hottest driest lowest spot in the continent now aptly known as Death Valley After leaving Salt Lake City to break a road south to the Pacific Coast that would eliminate crossing the snowy Sierra Nevada the party veered off the Old Spanish Trail in southern Utah to follow a mountaineer s map portraying a bogus trail that claimed to cut months and hundreds of miles off their route to the gold country With winter coming however they found themselves hopelessly lost in the mountains and dry valleys of southern Nevada and California Abandoning everything but the shirts on their backs and the few oxen that became their pitiful meals they turned their dreams of gold to hopes of survival Utilizing William Lorton s 1849 diary of the trek from Illinois to southern Utah the reminiscences of the Jayhawkers themselves the keen memory of famed pioneer William Lewis Manly and the almost daily diary of Sheldon Young Johnson paints a lively but accurate portrait of guts grit and determination
