Blacks in Rural America James Benjamin Stewart, Joyce E. Allen-Smith, 1995-01-01 This volume is unique in its focus on the current economic status of black Americans in rural areas This topic has had relatively limited visibility in recent years due in part to the high degree of urbanization among blacks However to neglect rural blacks in the United States would constitute a tremendous disservice both to the legacy of the ongoing struggle of blacks to achieve overall economic parity and to current efforts to ameliorate the particular disadvantages faced by this segment of the American population Blacks in Rural America will help fill a gap in the literature examining the disadvantaged status of rural blacks It remedies the lack of information about how the well being of blacks in rural America is affected by various public policies This important volume will challenge readers to pay greater attention to the structure of the agrarian sector of the population as such It is a necessary addition to the libraries of economists political scientists sociologists and scholars of black studies     On

Sociology Second Edition Volume Two John H. Goldthorpe, 2007 see copy for volume one     Conflicts About Class David J. Lee, Bryan S. Turner, 2014-09-12 In recent years there has been growing debate among sociologists about the concept of class and its relevance to the highly industrialised world of the late twentieth century This book makes available in a single volume all of the key contributions to this debate and takes it a step further with a number of specially commissioned pieces An editorial introduction which sets the main arguments in context additional commentary and two alternative conclusions help to make this a unique text for a subject that remains crucial yet highly contentious     Handbook of Comparative Political Economy Marino Regini, 2025-08-11 This comprehensive Handbook presents an overview of the evolution and current state of Comparative Political Economy CPE Taking an interdisciplinary approach it explores the leading theories main actors key institutions policy areas geographical boundaries and emerging themes in the field     Hungary in Flux Zsolt Spéder, 1999     Models of Secondary Education and Social Inequality Hans-Peter Blossfeld, Sandra Buchholz, Jan Skopek, Moris Triventi, 2016-11-25 From an international comparative perspective this third book in the prestigious eduLIFE Lifelong Learning series provides a thorough investigation into how social inequalities arise during individuals secondary schooling careers Paying particular attention to the role of social origin and prior performance it focuses on tracking and differentiation in secondary schooling examining the short and long term effects on inequality of opportunities It looks at ways in which differentiation in secondary education might produce and reproduce social inequalities in educational opportunities and educational attainment The international perspective allows illuminating comparison in light of the different models rules and procedures that regulate admission selection and learning in different countries
