Equality and Diversity in Education: National and international contexts Patricia Potts, Felicity Armstrong, Mary Masterton, 1995

Equality and Diversity in Education 2 Felicity Armstrong, Mary Masterton, Patricia Potts, 2013-12-16 Like the first reader this collection examines the grounds which are accepted for inclusion or exclusion of students and looks at how appropriate support can be guaranteed for people who experience difficulties in learning who are disabled or who experience social or other kinds of disability. This volume explores national and international contexts for educational practice and research and discusses practical ethical and political issues which are relevant to undertaking that research. Part one covers issues facing local government and the consumers of educational services in the UK. Part two compares policy and practice in eleven different countries and part 3 discusses research which explores the issues of equality and diversity in education. This volume and her sister Equality and Diversity in Education 1: Learning Teaching and Managing in Schools are readers for the Open University course Developing Inclusive Curricula: Equality and Diversity in Education E829. The two books in the series will appeal to teachers, non-teaching assistants and other school-based staff, parents, disabled people and those who have experienced difficulties in learning, social and health workers and those working for voluntary organisations.

The Young Deaf Or Hard of Hearing Child Barbara Bodner-Johnson, Marilyn Sass-Lehrer, 2003. As deaf and hard of hearing children are identified at an increasingly early age, professionals need to expand their knowledge about early intervention and education for these young children and their families. This scholarly text from the experts provides a solid foundation of research, key concepts and practical suggestions. Essential reading for early childhood educators, education professionals, speech language pathologists and students, this comprehensive resource fully prepares readers for successful partnerships with families and their deaf and hard of hearing children.

Register of Educational Research in the United Kingdom, 1992-1995 National Foundation For Educational Research, 1995. This latest volume of the Register of Educational Research in the United Kingdom lists all the major research projects being undertaken in Britain during the latter months of 1992, the whole of 1993 and 1994 and the early months of 1995. Each entry provides names and addresses of the researchers, a detailed abstract, the source and amount of the grant where applicable, the length of the project and details of published material about the research.
