Australian national bibliography, 1961 Globalization and European Welfare States Robert Sykes, D.

Bouget,Pauline M. Prior,Jo Campling,2001-06-07 This book seeks to counter the recent trend of speculation about the impact of globalization upon welfare states It begins by asking two related questions What exactly is globalization How if at all has globalization been implicated in recent changes to European welfare states The book combines both theoretical and empirical analysis to provide a critical account of the relationship between globalization and change in European welfare states Firstly the key theoretical and conceptual debates are reviewed and the existing perspectives on globalization and welfare policy change are assessed The text moves on to explore and challenge the more apocalyptic economic perspectives on globalization and welfare that suggest permanent retrenchment The discussion includes an outline and assessment of the role of international organisations such as the World Bank and the EU All the major types of European national welfare system are considered Bismarkian Southern Central and Eastern European Nordic and Liberal Individual chapters outline recent welfare policy changes in the European countries of each system and the role of globalization in such changes This ground breaking text provides new empirical and theoretical perspectives on links between globalization and European welfare state change It will be important reading for students and academics in the fields of social policy politics international relations European studies and related fields New Perspectives on China and Aging Jason L. Powell,Ian G. Cook,2007 The first part of the book is entitled Family Transition and Ageing and addresses rapid social and economic changes in China through a kaleidoscope of differential perspectives that focus on how family continues to be an important reference point for the past present and future institution in the care of older people The second part of the book focuses on the tangible social forces associated with managing old age Welfare Consumption and Ageing This section is important in locating the structures and agents of power that are relevant to maintaining trust and social relations between older people the Chinese State and its dualism of state welfare and consumption of welfare Juvenile Offending Thom Brooks,2023-05-31 Tackling juvenile offending has become a key part of crime reduction strategies The articles selected for this volume examine juvenile offending from various critical perspectives and represent the work of the most influential international figures in the field The issues addressed include the different needs and perspectives of youth offenders whether offenders should be treated differently from others because of their age recommendations of policy changes identification of risk factors issues surrounding the sentencing of juvenile offenders and the relevance of restorative justice Politics and Society in Poland Frances Millard,2002-09-11 An examination of political social and economic development in Poland since the summer of 1989 with the main focus on democratization Empirical Poverty Research in a Comparative Perspective Hans Jurgen Andreß,2019-05-23 First published in 1998 this books considers defining the concept of poverty as a collective issue through an empirical view point on an international scale Looking to define poverty by compiling case studies by academics writing from viewpoints in a variety of individual countries Coping with Homelessness Dragana Avramov,2018-12-17 First published in 1999 The phenomenon of homelessness is not new but it has only recently been perceived as a social problem in European Member States Even in the early 1990s little was known about the paths in and out of homelessness This volume presents the papers arising from EUROHOME Emergency and Transitory Housing for Homeless people Needs and Best Practices This project enabled a review of the state of knowledge in the field an analysis of recent trends and a discussion of the prospects for improvement in the prevention of homelessness and the public response to housing in Europe EUROHOME and this collection thus bring together experts in the study of Poverty and Social Exclusion in the New Russia Nataliya Tikhonova,2017-07-05 Presenting the findings of a major research project funded by the EU INTAS this key volume investigates the regional ethnic and socio cultural aspects of poverty and social exclusion in Russia in recent years In depth household interviews and survey data allowed teams from the UK Denmark and Russia to compare different societies and communities in Russia across several different themes the definition of poverty in different regional ethnic and socio cultural settings the reproduction and formation of poverty subcultures in different societies and communities the ethnic national and political values of poor people the readiness of poor people for social protest and a comparison of Russia with other EU countries Offering a wealth of original data collected following a period of rapid impoverishment of the Russian population the study considers the challenge this presents to Western European models of poverty and social exclusion

Research for Social Workers Margaret Alston,Wendy Bowles,2019-09-11 Social work is developing its own research orientation and knowledge base springing from the research traditions of sociology and psychology and grounded in human rights and social justice Effective social research relies on critical thinking and the ability to view situations from new perspectives It is relevant to every area of social work practice from the initial stages of an intervention to planning a course of action and finally evaluating practice Research for Social Workers is an accessible introduction to the research methods most commonly used in social work and social welfare The major stages of research projects are outlined step by step including analysing results and reporting It is written in non technical language for students and practitioners without a strong maths background Illustrated with examples from across the world this book captures the realities of social work research in a wide range of settings End of chapter exercises and questions make this an ideal introduction to research methods This third edition is fully revised and updated It includes new chapters on systematic reviews and research in crisis situations as well as more substantial coverage of statistics

Criminal and Social Justice Dee Cook,2006-03-22 See Sample Chapters Resources to download the Introduction to Criminal and Social Justice Dee Cook s new book is important innovative and invigorating It brings together two spheres criminal justice and social justice which are usually but as she persuades us unjustifiably kept separate intellectually and in policy and practice Dee Cook makes a powerful case for the inter connectedness of penal policy and social policy bringing together concepts from the two spheres such as social exclusion citizenship and human rights Her innovative approach brings insightful theoretical analysis together with two extended case studies differential treatment of tax fraud and benefit fraud and the third way politics of New Labour

This book will make it much more difficult for students policy makers and criminal justice practitioners to ignore the social context in which penal policy evolves and is implemented Professor Barbara Hudson University of Central Lancashire This is an accessible and lively critical account of the inter relationship between social and criminal justice in New Labour Britain It should engage students on a range of programmes particularly social policy criminology and sociology Ruth Lister Professor of Social Policy Loughborough University A cogent demonstration that criminal justice cannot be achieved in the absence of social justice There is a blistering but thoroughly informed critique of New Labour s failure to narrow this justice gap Let s hope the carefully reasoned but impassioned arguments about how to get really tough on the causes of crime and injustice get the attention they deserve Robert Reiner Professor of Criminology London School of Economics and Political Science Criminal and Social Justice provides an important insight into the relationship between social inequality crime and criminalisation In this accessible and innovative account Dee Cook examines the nature of the relationship between criminal and social justice both in theory and in practice Current social economic political and cultural considerations are brought to bear and contemporary examples are used throughout to help the student to consider this relationship The book is essential reading for students and researchers in criminology social policy social work and sociology It is also relevant to practitioners in statutory voluntary and community sector organisations

Critical Multicultural Practice in Social Work Charlotte Williams, 2020-07-16 Critical multicultural practice rather than being a specialism is integral to Australian social work Drawing on critical race theory critical multiculturalism intersectionality and critical reflection as practice theory this major new edited collection challenges many of the dominant assumptions of cross cultural social work and provides instead a new model of transformative engagement Key concepts are considered including identity culture diversity and superdiversity how power and privilege shape everyday interactions and what is meant by citizenship in the contemporary context Part One explores the changing nature of multicultural practice in Australia including our society s changing demographic profile the impact of asylum and refugee migrations race and racism and cultural identity Indigenous perspectives and the relationship with multicultural practice are examined together with the ethical and legal basis for multicultural practice This part concludes with an outline of the editors framework for critical multicultural practice Part Two draws on contributions from a range of practitioners and offers new perspectives on diverse fields including child protection mental health disability ageing homelessness and rural and regional practice Featuring case studies and insights drawn from across the spectrum of practice this book is a vital resource for all social workers practising in Australia today A rich and nuanced analysis of what is happening at the interfaces of our work and the lives of Australian citizens it articulates

ways forward that are genuine bold and empathetic From the foreword by Professor Kerry Arabena The University of Melbourne The Routledge International Handbook to Welfare State Systems Christian Aspalter,2017-01-12 Developing countries may not have full fledged welfare states like those we find in Europe but certainly they have welfare state systems For comparative social policy research the term welfare state systems has many advantages as there are numerous different types models of welfare state systems around the world This path breaking book edited by Christian Aspalter brings together leading experts to discuss social policy in 25 countries regions around the world From the most advanced welfare state systems in Scandinavia and Western Central Europe to the developing powers of Brazil China India Russia Mexico and Indonesia each country specific chapter provides a historical overview discusses major characteristics of the welfare state system analyzes country specific problems as well as critical current and future trends for further discussions while also providing one additional major focal point issue for greater in depth analysis This book breaks new ground in ideal typical welfare regime theory identifying now in total 10 worlds of welfare capitalism It provides broad perspectives on critical challenges which welfare state systems in the developing and developed world alike must address now and in the future It will be of great interest to all scholars and students of social policy social development development and health economists public policy health policy sociology social work and social policy makers and administrators This book is a reference book for researchers and social policy administrators it can also serve as a textbook for courses on comparative social policy international social policy and international social development Creating Autoethnographies Tessa Muncey,2010-04-14 The first ever practical text on this increasingly popular research method it provides a background and considers some of the criticisms of the approach It is suitable for all social science students both graduate and upper level undergraduate The book is structured to mirror the process of writing about experience from establishing an idea through to the process of writing and the development of creative writing skills and provides detailed worked examples of the whole process The final two chapters are devoted to exploring two cases in which readers can see the principles discussed in action There are also a wide range of case studies drawn from a wide a range of social science disciplines and exercises throughout the text

Identifying the Poor: Using Subjective and Consensual Measures Karel Van Den Bosch,2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2002 An investigation into the problem of identifying the poor and determining the poverty line The book focuses on one particular approach to the issue where survey respondents are asked for their views and outlines the four variants in the approach the consensual income method the consensual standard of living method the income evaluation method and the income satisfaction method The book contains an extensive and thorough review of the theoretical and empirical literature as well as rigorous analysis of survey data from Belgium The result is a conclusive assessment of the validity and usefulness of the subjective and consensual approaches to poverty measurement ECIC2014-Proceedings of the 6th European Conference on Intellectual Capital Dagmar Cagánová,Miloš Čambál,2014-10-04

The Top Books of the Year Research In Social Policy Vol 3 Research In Social Policy The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have captivated audiences this year.

Research In Social Policy Vol 3 Research In Social Policy : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail.

Research In Social Policy Vol 3 Research In Social Policy : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery.

Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting.

These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered.

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
