Retreat With Benedict And Bernard:

A Retreat with Benedict and Bernard Linus Mundy, 1998 Benedict of Nursia hungered for a better way to God and lived that example with his Rule Six hundred years later Bernard of Clairvaux appeared on the scene to return Western monasticism to its roots Both Benedict and Bernard challenge seekers to reduce the God and us relationship to its essence just as Christ's gospel dictates by way of love pure and simple Available now Erasmus and the Middle Ages István Bejczy, 2001-08-06 The aim of this book is to examine Erasmus' attitude toward the medieval past and to relate it to his historical consciousness More than any other Renaissance humanist Erasmus was committed to the goal of building an alternative to medieval civilisation In his view the restoration and study of ancient pagan and Christian literature would result in an elevation of cultural and intellectual as well as moral and spiritual standards Yet these very assumptions appear to be challenged by Erasmus' specific observations on the course of history up to his own day The present study is the first to show a fault line between the basic ideas of Erasmus' Christian humanism and his view of the actual development of humanity through the ages Reaching for God Roberta Werner, 2013 Reaching for God is a compendium of Benedictine life and prayer for oblates It brings together in one volume the essence of Benedictine spirituality its history its relevance through the ages and in the present and a summary of the most fundamental gifts and values it offers for living a meaningful life Here the meaning and purpose of the oblate way of life is explained in a clear and encouraging way Werner offers guidance and examples of prayer to enrich any spiritual life Sister Roberta Werner OSB having worked as a teacher caregiver and educational administrator is now the assistant oblate director at St Benedict's Monastery in St Joseph Minnesota In this role she guides an oblate discussion group contributes to oblate newsletter publications has set up an oblate library and makes the spiritual journey with the many oblates who connect with her and with the monastery in their search for God
