Retreat With Black Elk Living In The Sacred Hoop:

A Retreat with Black Elk Marie Therese Archambault, 1998 Called a spiritual genius by many today Nicholas Black Elk is credited with the reawakening and recovery of the pan Native American ritual and spiritual tradition in America His life reflected his conviction that his people could live again spiritually through the Catholic and Lakota traditions both of which he embraced with dedication in his lifetime Available now Black Elk Speaks John G. that he struggled to understand Although Black Elk embraced Catholicism in his later years he continued to practice the old ways clandestinely and never refrained from seeking meaning in the visions that both haunted and inspired him In Black Elk Jackson has crafted a true American epic restoring to its subject the richness of his times and gorgeously portraying a life of heroism and tragedy adaptation and endurance in an era of permanent crisis on the Great Plains The Black Elk Reader Clyde Holler,2000-06-01 This book includes both new essays and revised versions of classic works by recognized authorities on Black Elk Clyde Roller s introduction explores his life and texts and illustrates his relevance to today s scholarly discussions Dale Stover considers Black Elk from a postcolonial perspective and R Todd Wise investigates similarities between Black Elk Speaks and the Testimonio as exemplified by I Rigoberta Menchu An Indian Woman in Guatemala Anthropologist Raymond A Bucko provides an annotated bibliography and a sensitive guide to the issues surrounding cultural appropriation a subject also explored through Frances Kaye s engaging reading of Hawthorne s The Marble Fawn Classic essays by Julian Rice and George W Linden are included in the collection as well as Hilda Niehardt s reflections on the 1931 and 1944 interviews with Black Elk With its unusually broad range of academic disciplines and perspectives this book shows that Black Elk stands at the intersection of today s scholarly discussions In addition to scholars of religion anthropology multicultural literature and Native American studies The Black Elk Reader will appeal to a general audience Nicholas Black Elk Michael F. Endres, 2022-08-12 Before there was an immigrant American Church there was a Native American Church The Native American Catholic Studies Reader offers an introduction to the story of how Native American Catholicism has developed over the centuries beginning with the age of the missions and leading to inculturated indigenous forms of religious expression Though the Native Christian relationship could be marked by tension coercion and even violence the Christian faith took root among Native Americans and for those who accepted it and bequeathed it to future generations it became not an imposition but a way of expressing Native identity From the perspective of historians and theologians the Native American Catholic Studies Reader offers a curated collection of essays divided into three sections education and evangelization tradition and transition and Native American lives Contributors include scholars currently working in the field Mark Clatterbuck Damian Costello Conor J Donnan Ross Enochs Allan Greer Mark G Thiel and Christopher Vecsey as well as selections from a past generation Gerald McKeivitt SJ and Carl F Starkloff SJ These contributions explore the interaction of missionaries and tribal leaders the relationship of traditional Native cosmology and religiosity to Christianity and the role of geography and tribal consciousness in accepting and maintaining indigenous and religious identities These readings highlight the state of the emergent field of Native Catholic studies and suggest further avenues for research and publication For scholars teachers and students the Native American Catholic Studies Reader explores how the faith of the American Church's eldest members became a means of expressing and celebrating language family and tribe Finding All Things in God Hans Gustafson, 2017-05-25 In Finding All Things In God Hans Gustafson proposes pansacramentalism as holding the potential to find the divine in all things and all things in the divine Such a proposition carries significant interreligious implications particularly in the practice of theology Presupposing theological practice as divorced from spirituality lived religious experience Gustafson presents pansacramentalism as a bridge between the two In so doing Gustafson offers a history of spirituality sketching the foundations of a classical approach to sacramentality through Aquinas as well as a contemporary approach to the same through Rahner and Chauvet Through three fascinating case studies this book presents particular instances of sacramentality in lived religious experience Gustafson offers an exciting method of doing theology one which is entirely compatible with the interdisciplinary field of interreligious studies
