The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1928 Bulletin of the Brooklyn Public Library Brooklyn Public Library,1928 The Auk ,1928 Nature's Noblemen Monica Rico,2013-07-16 DIV In this fascinating book Monica Rico explores the myth of the American West in the nineteenth century as a place for men to assert their masculinity by roughing it in the wilderness and reveals how this myth played out in a transatlantic context Rico uncovers the networks of elite men British and American who circulated between the West and the metropolises of London and New York Each chapter tells the story of an individual who by traveling these transatlantic paths sought to resolve anxieties about class gender and empire in an era of profound economic and social transformation All of the men Rico discusses from the well known including Theodore Roosevelt and Buffalo Bill Cody to the comparatively obscure such as English cattle rancher Moreton Frewen envisioned the American West as a global space into which redemptive narratives of heroic upper class masculinity could be written div American Book Prices Current ,2005 A record of literary properties sold at auction in the United States

Nature Sir Norman Lockyer,1929 Catalog of the Library of the Academy of Natural Sciences of Philadelphia Academy of Natural Sciences of Philadelphia. Library,1972 Henry James's Style of Retrospect Oliver Herford,2016-05-26 Henry James s Style of Retrospect traces James s engagement with the writing of the recent past across the last twenty five years of his life and examines the thoroughgoing change his style underwent in this last phase of his career as his focus turned from the observation of contemporary manners to biographical commemoration and autobiographical reminiscence and the balance of his output gradually shifted from fiction to non fiction The late personal writings of the book s subtitle are works of retrospective non fiction They are a varied group representing a broad array of genres and occasions commemorative essays and obituary tributes textual revisions and accounts of revisiting familiar places cultural and literary criticism biography and autobiography and family memoir Oliver Herford proposes that we read the late personal writings as a coherent sequence bound together by a close texture of cross references and allusive echoes and united by James s newly discovered sense for the literary possibilities of non fiction Closely analyzing the style of these writings this study offers a boldly revisionist account of the way style itself challenges and preoccupies the very late James A linked series of innovative close readings takes the major works of this period in sequence addressing a key point of style in each particular attention is paid to procedures of reference to the historical past to real persons and places and objects a dimension of style often neglected and sometimes actively slighted in analyses of James s late work Henry James s Style of Retrospect asks what it means for so distinguished a novelist to alter the foundations of his written manner so strikingly in late life and shows how we may begin to reconfigure our understanding of late Jamesian aesthetics accordingly Black New Orleans, 1860-1880 John W. Blassingame,2008-09-15 Reissued for the first time in over thirty years Black New Orleans explores the twenty year period in which the city s black population more than doubled Meticulously researched and replete with archival illustrations from newspapers and rare periodicals John W Blassingame s groundbreaking history offers a unique look at the economic and social life of black people in New Orleans during Reconstruction Not a conventional political treatment Blassingame s history instead emphasizes the educational religious cultural and economic activities of African Americans during the late nineteenth century Blending historical and sociological perspectives and drawing with skill and imagination upon a variety of sources Blassingame offers fresh insights into an oft studied period of Southern history In both time and place the author has chosen an extraordinarily revealing vantage point from which to view his subject Neil R McMillen American Historical Review Quarterly literary advertiser ,1883
