Enlightenment John R. Betz, 2012-03-12 After Enlightenment Hamann as Post Secular Visionary is a comprehensive introduction to the life and works of eighteenth century German philosopher J G Hamann the founding father of what has come to be known as Radical Orthodoxy Provides a long overdue comprehensive introduction to Hamann's fascinating life and controversial works including his role as a friend and critic of Kant and some of the most renowned German intellectuals of the age Features substantial new translations of the most important passages from across Hamann's writings some of which have never been translated into English Examines Hamann's highly original views on a range of topics including faith reason revelation Christianity biblical exegesis Socrates theological aesthetics language sexuality religion politics and the relationship between Judaism and Christianity Presents Hamann as the founding father of a distinctly post modern post secular theology and as such as an alternative to the postmodern triumvirate of Nietzsche Heidegger and Derrida Considers Hamann's work as a touchstone of modern Jewish Christian dialogue in view of debates with his friend Moses Mendelssohn Explores Hamann's role as the visionary founder of a metacritical movement that radically calls into question the basic principles of modern secular reason and thus reprises the debate between those defending Hamann's views and those labeling him the bête noir of the Enlightenment

A Tall Order. Writing the Social History of the Ancient World Jean-Jacques Aubert, Zsuzsanna Várhelyi, 2012-06-28 This volume commemorates the 65th birthday of William Vernon Harris on September 13 2003 when a group of his former students agreed to honor him with a collection of essays that would represent the wide variety of interests and influences of our advisor and friend The fifteen papers in fact range chronologically from the first Olympics to late antiquity and discuss various questions of imperialism law economy and religion in the ancient Mediterranean world The essays share a social historical perspective from which they challenge as many commonly accepted notions in ancient history The contributors acknowledge their intellectual debt to the formative scholarly acumen of William V Harris which adds up to the tall order of engaging with his work

Dutch Reformed Orthodoxy and Islam Felipe Boechat Asseruy Silva, 2025-03-10 However turbulent and virulent Christian Muslim Relations may have been throughout the centuries it does not mean that each side did not take the time to evaluate and appreciate each other's theological dogmas Felipe Boechat Asseruy Silva shows that although Christians were subjected to constant attacks and invasions by the Turks for multiple centuries they eventually Early Modern Period sought to refine their thinking about Islam and evaluate its theological tenets in a semi dispassionate form and to provide a large scale reply In the Medieval period in depth analysis of Islam from a purely theological philosophical point of view were rare Most publications frequently resorted to the use of offensive and inaccurate language which at times fomented a disagreement between the parties based not on real theological differences besides the obvious political differences but on imagined ones This volume shows that Post Reformation Reformed Orthodox theologians especially those from the Dutch Republic after having access to a long legacy of Christian Muslim written publications collected by Dutch Universities were able to build much more refined arguments and indeed present well informed apologetical theological and historical arguments against Islam The author also shows that the intense commerce between Christian and Islamic nations and the contemporary flourishing of orientalist studies in the Dutch Universities contributed to the formation of an intellectual arena that was willing to overlook past animosities and focus on the theological differences addressing them as such

The Shadow of Creusa Anders Cullhed, 2015-04-24 Anders Cullhed's study The Shadow of Creusa explores the early Christian confrontation with pagan culture as a remote anticipation of many later clashes between religious orthodoxy and literary fictionality After a careful survey of Saint Augustine's critical attitudes to ancient myth and poetry summarized as a long drawn out farewell Cullhed examines other Late Antique dismissals as well as appropriations of the classical heritage Macrobius Martianus Capella and Boethius figure among the Late Antique intellectuals who attempted to save or even restore the old mythology by means of allegorical representation On the other hand pious poets such as Paulinus of Nola and Bible epic writers such as Iuvencus or Avitus of Vienne turned against pagan lies and the mighty arch bishop of Milan Saint Ambrose played off unconditional Christian truth against the last Roman strongholds of cultural pluralism Thus The Shadow of Creusa elucidates a cultural conflict which was to leave traces all through the Middle Ages and reach down to our present day
