Reversing The Gaze:

Between Two Worlds: A Rajput Officer in the Indian Army, 1905-21 DeWitt C. Ellinwood, 2005-02-15 Diary of Amar Singh with annotations commentary and introduction by DeWitt C Ellinwood Jr Reversing the Gaze Geneviève Makaping, 2023-01-13 Tired of being scrutinized criticized and fetishized for her black skin Cameroon born scholar Geneviève Makaping turns the tables on Italy's white majority regarding them through the same unsparing gaze to which minorities have traditionally been subjected As she candidly recounts her experiences first across Africa and then as a migrant Black woman in Italy Makaping describes acts of racist aggression that are wearying and degrading to encounter on a daily basis She also offers her perspective on how various forms of inequality based on race color gender and class feed off each other Reversing the Gaze invites readers to confront the question of racism through the retelling of everyday occurrences that we might have experienced as victims perpetrators or witnesses Reversing the Gaze Geneviève Makaping, 2023-01-13 Tired of being scrutinized criticized and fetishized for her black skin Cameroon born scholar Geneviève Makaping turns the tables on Italy's white majority regarding them through the same unsparing gaze to which minorities are subjected Reversing the Gaze offers a unique perspective on otherness and the work we must do to create a truly inclusive society Women Filmmakers Jacqueline Levitin, Judith Plessis, Valerie Raoul, 2016-02-29 This wide ranging volume of new work brings together women filmmakers and critics who speak about what has changed over the past twenty years Including such filmmakers as Margarethe von Trotta Deepa Mehta and Pratibha Parmar and such critics as E Ann Kaplan this comprehensive volume addresses political artistic and economic questions vital Thinking with the South Andrea Fleschenberg, Kai Kresse, Rosa Cordillera Castillo, 2023-12-04 This volume brings together a series of discussions by scholars from a range of disciplinary trans regional and epistemic perspectives that came out of the Berlin based co2libri networking initiative with longstanding collaborative partners based in the global South Co2libri stands for conceptual collaboration living borderless research interaction As an interdisciplinary and transregional oriented initiative co2libri envisages a multicentric perspective that integrates neglected positions of Southern theory and praxis into the heart of academic conversations Co2libri's collaborative endeavor builds on long standing active connections with partners in Africa South and Southeast Asia and the Middle East Instead of setting an agenda from the North it proposes to figure out ways forward through collaborative engagement building on relationships of mutual trust Using formats that facilitate substantial and open ended discussion we are re thinking theory and method academic practices and research ethics while keeping material inequalities in view Contributors to this edited volume are working toward the implementation of various innovative activities research perspectives and collaboration formats which all subscribe to the principle of dialogue on equal footing with scholars and activists based in divergent positionalities along and beyond the Global North South divide In different ways the authors work toward the goal of producing more adequate and more sensitive critical knowledge and applying a fresh view to approach methods and ethical standards Overall the volume works sometimes in exploratory ways with alternative frames of reference while it presents diverse theorizations of lived experiences Witnessing Sadism in Texts of the American South Claire Raymond, 2019-10-28 Looking at works by Carrie Mae Weems Toni Morrison Emily Dickinson Flannery O Connor Dorothy Allison Carson McCullers and Zora Neale Hurston Claire Raymond uncovers a pattern of femininity constructed around representations of sadistic violence in American women s literature and photography from the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries Dickinson s poetry is read through its relationship to the Southern Agrarian critics who championed her work While the representations of violence found in Carrie Mae Weems s installation From Here I Saw What Happened and I Cried Morrison s Beloved Dickinson s poetry O Connor s A View of the Woods and A Good Man Is Hard to Find Allison s Bastard Out of Carolina McCullers Ballad of the Sad Caf and Hurston s Mules and Men are diverse in terms of artistic presentation all allude to or are set in the antebellum and Jim Crow South In addition all involve feminine characters whose subjectivity is shaped by the practice of seeing acts of violence inflicted where there can be no effective resistance While not proposing an equivalence between representing violence in visual images and written text Raymond does suggest that visual images of violence can be interpreted in context with written evocations of violent imagery Invoking sadism in its ethical sense of violence enacted on a victim for whom self defense and recourse of any kind are impossible Raymond s study is ultimately an exploration of the idea that a femininity constructed by the positioning of feminine characters as witnesses to sadistic acts is a phenomenon distinctly of the American South that is linked to the culture s history of racism Disciplined Natives Satadru Sen, 2012 This volume examines three interrelated aspects of the history of British India race the disciplining institution and attempts by the colonized to imagine states of freedom They deal with sites as diverse as the prison the family the classroom the playing field and children s literature The essays confront the ideological social and political ramifications of the fact that even as metropolitan prisons and schools shifted their attention from the body to the confined soul colonial disciplinary institutions ensured that race was firmly attached to the body and its habits They also engage the historiography that has sought to underline the challenges of reconciling Michel Foucault and Edward Said They ask whether the liberating possibilities of the racialized and embodied native self were confined to inversions and rearrangements of given normative hierarchies or if we can occasionally glimpse radical departures and alternative configurations of power A Guide to Teaching Effective Seminars Susan R. Fiksdal, 2014-03-21 A Guide to Teaching Effective Seminars provides college and university faculty with a new approach to thinking about their teaching and helps them develop a deeper understanding of conversation itself Seminars often inspire collaborative learning and produce rich educational environments yet even experienced faculty find these conversations can range in quality A Guide to Teaching Effective Seminars addresses this challenge by presenting a sociolinguistic perspective on seminars and providing instructors with best practices to manage successful seminars Grounded in research data and her own deep experience teaching seminars author Susan Fiksdal reveals ways students negotiate perspectives on reading on conversation and on social identities and power By giving readers an appreciation of the discourse of seminars the book helps to undermine stereotypes about language and people increase civility reduce misunderstandings and foster tolerance for new ideas and diverse ways of expressing them This important resource is for faculty members at all levels of experience and in every discipline who want practical advice about facilitating effective seminars Special Features Each chapter explores a key aspect of conversation with examples from a wide range of seminars across disciplines Transcripts from videotaped seminars showcase authentic conversations and negotiations between students End of chapter best practices promote critical thinking and collaboration A companion website features video clips of the transcripts in the book and additional resources

The Rhetorical Power of Children's Literature John H. Saunders, 2016-12-21 The Rhetorical Power of Children's Literature is an edited volume with contributions from established and new scholars of rhetoric offering case studies that analyze a full array of genres in children's literature from picture books to young adult novels Collectively this volume's contributions interrogate how children's literature is a powerful yet under examined space of rhetorical discourse that influences one of the most vulnerable segments of our population This book is singularly unique given that it will be the first collection of essays on children's literature from the distinct perspective of the field of Communication Beyond topical novelty the contributors utilize a range of scholarly methods to analyze instances of the rhetoric of children's literature Consequently essays in this volume may be read for both their specific topical content and as exemplars for multiple methodological approaches to the study of the rhetoric of children's literature Collectively the contributors set out to contribute to our knowledge of how instances of children's literature operate as rhetorical discourses The volume is organized by case studies approached through critical rhetorical lenses that analyze specific instances of children's literature from two distinct stages of children's developmental reading experiences including pre early literacy and fluent reading Structurally the book includes eight content chapters divided evenly with four chapters analyzing books for young children and four chapters analyzing books targeting audiences from late childhood to adolescence An overview of each content chapter accompanies this proposal
