Revisionary History Of Portuguese Literature:

A Revisionary History of Portuguese Literature Miguel Tamen, Helena C. Buescu, 2021-10-28 First published in 1999 this volume is a collection of papers on Portuguese literature giving a historical and more updated review Included are twelve essays presented in chronological order providing students with a series of assessments and developments

A Companion to Portuguese Literature Thomas Foster Earle, Stephen Parkinson, Cláudia Pazos Alonso, 2013 An essential chronological framework for students of Portuguese literature This companion volume offers an introduction to European Portuguese literature for university level readers It consists of a chronological overview of Portuguese literature from the twelfth century to the present day by some of the most distinguished literary scholars of recent years leading into substantial essays centred on major authors genres or periods and a study of the history of translations It does not attempt an encyclopaedic coverage of Portuguese literature but provides essential chronological and bibliographical information on all major authors and genres with more extensive treatment of key works and literary figures and a particular focus on the modern period It is unashamedly canonical rather than thematic in its examination of central authors and periods without neglecting female writers In this way it provides basic reference materials for students beginning the study of Portuguese literature and for a wider audience looking for general or specific information The editors have made a principled decision to exclude both Brazilian and African literature which demand separate treatment

STEPHEN PARKINSON CLAUDIA PAZOS ALONSO and T F EARLE are all members of the Sub Faculty of Portuguese at the University of Oxford

Re-exploring the Links Jorge Manuel Flores, 2007 The island of Ceilao occupied a permanent and singular place in the political imagination of early modern Portugal Concurrently the Portuguese left a strong imprint in the Sri Lankan collective memory of the period Five centuries later a group of historians art historians anthropologists and linguists reflect on the multiple dimensions of this phenomenon by rethinking texts and maps ruined churches and ivory caskets oral tales and Creole communities Authored by 15 international scholars Re exploring the Links is divided in four parts Political Realities and Cultural Imagination Religion Conflict and Interaction Space and Heritage Construction Representation Language and Ethnicity Identity and Memory While published on the occasion of the Portuguese arrival in Sri Lanka five centuries ago this book is far from being a celebratory piece Re exploring the Links does not conform to nationalist models of historical interpretation and refuses both the rhetoric of discovery and the rhetoric of aggression The aim of the volume is not to celebrate encounters but to reinvent an academic debate independent of any political agenda and concerning a history that is Portuguese and Sri Lankan alike
