Revitalizing the Industrial City ; The Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science Ralph R.

Widner,1986 Revitalizing the Industrial City Ralph R. Widner,Marvin Eugene Wolfgang,1986 Since 1889 The American Academy of Political and Social Science has served as a forum for the free exchange of ideas among the well informed and intellectually curious In this era of specialization few scholarly periodicals cover the scope of societies and politics like The ANNALS Each volume is guest edited by outstanding scholars and experts in the topics studied and presents more than 200 pages of timely in depth research on a significant topic of concern <http://ann.sagepub.com> The Politics of Plant Closings John Portz,1990 A paper reprint of the 1988 original It is a political history that describes and analyzes the management of organized knowledge Wheatley takes Flexner and the Carnegie Foundation of 1910 as the model Portz political science Northeastern U combines a synthesis of the literature on urban politics and political economy with a close analysis of plant closings in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania Louisville Kentucky and Waterloo Iowa to illuminate the complexity of constraints upon and range of local government efforts to control the economic damage caused by shutdowns Paper edition unseen 12 95 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Old Industrial Cities Seeking New Road of Industrialization

Mark Wang,2014 In the context of market economy and competition from rapidly growing coastal areas Northeast China became the burden to China s overall economic development With a high concentration of state owned heavy industries cities in this region suffered from heavy losses in revenue and massive layoffs of millions of former state owned enterprise workers known as the Northeast Phenomenon or Neo Northeast Phenomenon The once towering economic giant was down Such a phenomenon is not uncommon in other rust belt regions in industrialized economies However since the implementation of the Chinese Government s Revitalisation Strategy of Northeast China in 2003 cities in Northeast China have gone through various transformations Keyframes: Popular Cinema and Cultural Studies Matthew Tinkcom,Amy Villarejo,2003-08-29 Keyframes introduces the study of popular cinema of Hollywood and beyond and responds to the transformative effect of cultural studies on film studies The contributors rethink contemporary film culture using ideas and concerns from feminism queer theory race studies critiques of nationalism colonialism and post colonialism the cultural economies of fandom spectator theory and Marxism Combining a film studies focus on the film industry production and technology with a cultural studies analysis of consumption and audiences Keframes demonstrates the breadth of approaches now available for understanding popular cinema Subjects addressed include Studying Ripley and the Alien films Pedagogy and Political Correctness in Martial Arts cinema Judy Garland fandom on the net Stardom and serial fantasies Thomas Harris s Hannibal Tom Hanks and the globalization of stars Queer Bollywood Jackie Chan and the Black connection 12 Monkeys postmodernism and urban space Revitalizing Cities H. Briavel Holcomb,Robert A. Beauregard,1981 A geographic perspective of urban revitalization is provided in this publication which is intended for geography professors students and researchers There are seven chapters Chapter 1 discusses the geographical aspects of urban revitalization Urban decline and redevelopment is the focus of the second chapter Discussed are parks civic centers and beautification slum clearance jobs and public housing central city decline subsidized redevelopment from 1949 to 1970 interregional shifts and fiscal crisis and community and urban development The extent and causes of revitalization are dealt with in the third chapter Chapters 4 and 5 deal with commercial redevelopment and residential revitalization respectively The importance of image and sentiment in the revitalization of urban areas is the topic of chapter 6 The concluding chapter examines social justice and the revitalization process A bibliography is provided RM Major Research Findings, Selected Accomplishments, and Publications, 1985-1988, 1989 Routledge Handbook of Tourism Cities Alastair M. Morrison, J. Andres Coca-Stefaniak, 2020-08-27 The Routledge Handbook of Tourism Cities presents an up to date critical and comprehensive overview of established and emerging themes in urban tourism and tourist cities Offering socio cultural perspectives and multidisciplinary insights from leading scholars the book explores contemporary issues challenges and trends Organised into four parts the handbook begins with an introductory section that explores contemporary issues challenges and trends that tourism cities face today A range of topics are explored including sustainable urban tourism overtourism and urbanisation the impact of terrorism visitor host interactions as well as reflections on present and future challenges for tourism cities In Part II the marketing branding and markets for tourism cities are considered exploring topics such as destination marketing and branding business travellers and exhibition hosting This section combines academic scholarship with real life practice and case studies from cities Part III discusses product and technology developments for tourism cities examining their supply and impact on different travellers from open air markets to creative waterfronts from social media to smart cities The final Part offers examples of how urban tourism is developing in different parts of the world and how worldwide tourism cities are adapting to the challenges ahead It also explores emerging forms of specialist tourism including geology and ecology based tourism socialist heritage and post communist destination tourism This handbook fills a notable gap by offering a critical and detailed understanding of the diverse elements of the tourist experience today It contains useful suggestions for practitioners as well as examples for theoretical frameworks to students in the fields of urban tourism and tourism cities The handbook will be of interest to scholars and students working in urban tourism heritage studies human geography urban studies and urban planning sociology psychology and business studies Globalization and Decentralization Jong S. Jun, Deil S. Wright, 1996 The twenty contributors and the editors provide new insights into the domestic consequences of global interdependence by examining emerging strategies for dealing with environmental concerns urban problems infrastructure investments financial policies and human services issues Communities of Resistance and Resilience in the Post-Industrial City Daniel Holland, 2024-08-01 This book is about the grassroots community revitalization movement in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania and Lyon France between 1980 and 2010 an extension of the post WWII civil rights campaign that is rarely considered It tells the story of residents attempts to improve their communities through social capital or people power In positive ways citizens created vibrant attractive neighborhoods But their actions also generated unintended consequences such as high real estate prices and minority displacement that threatened to unravel their hard work Communities of Resistance and Resilience is an ethnographic survey that relies on oral histories archival research on the ground site surveys and the author s personal experience as a neighborhood reinvestment practitioner for more than 30 years It brings to life stories that would otherwise remain obscured such as the lingering impact of the March for Equality and Against Racism organized in Lyon in 1983 and the formation of the Pittsburgh Community Reinvestment Group in Pittsburgh in 1988 both of which launched national movements This is of great use to scholars of transatlantic history as well as a general audience interested in modern social movements in the United States and France
