Revolution and the Rebirth of Inequality Herbert S. Klein, 1977 A History of Mining in Latin America Kendall W. Brown, 2012-03-16 For twenty five years Kendall Brown studied Potos Spanish America's greatest silver producer and perhaps the world's most famous mining district He read about the flood of silver that flowed from its Cerro Rico and learned of the toil of its miners Potos symbolized fabulous wealth and unbelievable suffering New World bullion stimulated the formation of the first world economy but at the same time it had profound consequences for labor as mine operators and refiners resorted to extreme forms of coercion to secure workers In many cases the environment also suffered devastating harm All of this occurred in the name of wealth for individual entrepreneurs companies and the ruling states Yet the question remains of how much economic development mining managed to produce in Latin America and what were its social and ecological consequences Brown's focus on the legendary mines at Potos and comparison of its operations to those of other mines in Latin America is a well written and accessible study that is the first to span the colonial era to the present A Concise History of Bolivia Herbert S. Klein, 2021-12-09 Bolivia is an unusually high altitude country created by imperial conquest and native adaptations today it remains one of the most multi ethnic societies in the world with one of the largest Amerindian populations in the Americas It has seen the most social and economic mobility of Indian and mestizo populations in any country in Latin America This work having also appeared in Spanish Portuguese Japanese and Chinese in its earlier editions has become the standard survey of the history of Bolivia In this new edition Klein explores the changes that occurred in the past two decades under the leadership of Evo Morales and his indigenous government and how his party has emerged in the post Evo years as one of the most important in Bolivia The work also expands on the changes in both the traditional mining economy and the rise of a new commercial export agriculture The Lettered Indian Brooke Larson, 2023-11-17 Bringing into dialogue the fields of social history Andean ethnography and postcolonial theory The Lettered Indian maps the moral dilemmas and political stakes involved in the protracted struggle over Indian literacy and schooling in the Bolivian Andes Brooke Larson traces Bolivia's major state efforts to educate its unruly Indigenous masses at key junctures in the twentieth century While much scholarship has focused on the Indian boarding school and other Western schemes of racial assimilation Larson interweaves state centered and imperial episodes of Indigenous education reform with vivid ethnographies of Aymara peasant protagonists and their extraordinary pro school initiatives Exploring the field of vernacular literacy practices and peasant political activism she examines the transformation of the rural alphabet school from an instrument of the civilizing state into a tool of Aymara cultural power collective representation and rebel activism From the metaphorical threshold of the rural school Larson rethinks the politics of race and indigeneity nation and empire in postcolonial Bolivia and beyond

Farthing,2013-07-04 Bolivia has experienced two decades of unprecedented popular resistance to the consequences of neoliberal policies resulting in the resignation and flight of its president in October 2003 This unusual book uncovers the reasons and processes behind the rising opposition mirrored in country after country in Latin America to this currently fashionable internationally prescribed approach to economic development It explores the problems faced by governments in reproducing global strategies at the national level the tensions between markets and democracy state restructuring citizenship and property rights It points to the problems inherent in retaining neoliberalism as the dominant paradigm in Latin America for the foreseeable future and the unlikely prospect of it putting down real roots of approval and legitimacy
