Revolution In Time Belknap Press:

Revolution in Time David S. Landes, 1983 More than a decade after the publication of his dazzling book on the cultural technological and manufacturing aspects of measuring time and making clocks David Landes has significantly expanded Revolution in Time In a new preface and scores of updated passages he explores new findings about medieval and early modern time keeping as well as contemporary hi tech uses of the watch as mini computer cellular phone and even radio receiver or television screen While commenting on the latest research Landes never loses his focus on the historical meaning of time and its many perceptions and uses questions that go beyond history that involve philosophers and possibly theologians and literary folk as well

Revolution in Time David Saul Landes, 1985 The Time Paradox Philip Zimbardo, John Boyd, 2008-08-05 From the New York Times bestselling author of The Lucifer Effect comes a breakthrough book that draws on thirty years of pioneering research to reveal for the first time how your individual time perspective shapes your life and is shaped by the world around you This is the first paradox of time Your attitudes toward time have a profound impact on your life and world yet you seldom recognize it Our goal is to help you reclaim yesterday enjoy today and master tomorrow with new ways of seeing and working with your past present and future Just as Howard Gardner's Multiple Intelligences permanently altered our understanding of intelligence and Malcolm Gladwell's Blink gave us an appreciation for the adaptive unconscious Philip Zimbardo and John Boyd's new book changes the way we think about and experience time It will give you new insights into how family conflicts can be resolved by ways to enhance your sexuality and sensuality and mindsets for becoming more successful in business and happier in your life Based on the latest psychological research The Time Paradox is both a big think guide for living in the twenty first century and one of those rare self help books that really does have the power to improve lives

Making Time Gavin Lucas, 2021-04-25 Making Time grapples with a range of issues that have crystallized in the wake of 15 years of discussion on time in archaeology since the author's seminal volume The Archaeology of Time synthesizing them for a new generation of scholars The general understanding of time held by both archaeologists and non archaeologists is often very simple a linear notion where time flows along a single path from the past into the future This book sets out to complicate this image to draw out the key problems and issues with time that impact archaeological interpretation Using concrete examples drawn from different periods and places the book challenges the reader to think again Ultimately the book will suggest that if we want to understand what archaeological time is then we need to accept that things do not exist in time they make time The crucial question then becomes what kinds of time do archaeological materialities produce Written for upper level undergraduates and researchers in archaeology the book is also accessible to non academics with an interest in the topic The book is relevant for cognate disciplines especially history heritage studies and philosophy

A Grand Complication Stacy Perman, 2013-02-19 Two wealthy and powerful men engage in a decades long contest to create and possess the most remarkable watch in history James Ward Packard of Warren

Ohio was an entrepreneur and a talented engineer of infinite curiosity a self made man who earned millions from his inventions including the design and manufacture of America s first luxury car the elegant and storied Packard Henry Graves Jr was the very essence of blue blooded refinement in the early 1900s son of a Wall Street financier a central figure in New York high society and a connoisseur of beautiful things especially fine watches Then as now expensive watches were the ultimate sign of luxury and wealth but in the early twentieth century the limitless ambition wealth and creativity of these two men pushed the boundaries of mathematics astronomy craftsmanship technology and physics to create ever more ingenious timepieces In any watch features beyond the display of hours minutes and seconds are known as complications Packard and Graves spurred acclaimed Swiss watchmaker Patek Philippe to create the Mona Lisa of timepieces a fabled watch that incorporated twenty four complications and took nearly eight years to design and build For the period it was the most complicated watch ever created For years it disappeared but then it surfaced at a Sotheby s auction in 1999 touching off a heated bidding war shattering all known records when it fetched 11 million from an anonymous bidder New York Times bestselling author Stacy Perman takes us from the clubby world of New York high society into the ateliers of the greatest Swiss watchmakers and into the high octane often secretive subculture of modern day watch collecting With meticulous research vivid historical details and a wealth of dynamic personalities A Grand Complication is the fascinating story of the thrilling duel between two of the most intriguing men of the early twentieth century Above all it is a sweeping chronicle of innovation the desire for beauty and the lengths people will go to possess it

The Mental Universe of the English Nonjurors John William Klein,2021-09-21 The Glorious Revolution of 1688 which pushed James II from the throne of England was not glorious for everyone in fact for many it was a great disaster Those who had already taken an oath of allegiance to James II and to his heirs and lawful successors now pondered how they could take a second oath to William and Mary Those who initially refused to swear the oaths were called Nonjurors In 1691 Archbishop Sancroft eight bishops and four hundred clergy of the Church of England as well as a substantial number of scholars at Oxford and Cambridge were deprived removed from their offices and their license to practice removed The loss of this talent to the realm was incalculable Ten different paradigms shaped the English Nonjurors worldview Passive Obedience was paramount the Apostolic Succession essential a Cyprianist mentality colored everything they held a conscientious regard for oaths the Usages Controversy brought Tradition to the fore printing presses replaced lost pulpits patronage was a means of protection and proliferation they lived with a hybridized conception of time creative women spiritual writers complemented male bishops and a global ecumenical approach to the Orthodox East was visionary These ten operated synergistically to create an effective tool for the Nonjurors survival and success in their mission The Nonjurors influence out of all proportion to their size was due in large measure to this mentality Their unique circumstances prompted creative thinking and they were superb in that endeavor These perspectives constituted the infrastructure of the Nonjurors world and they help us to see the early eighteenth century not only as a time of rapid change but also as an era of persistent older religious mentalities adapted to new circumstances

Subversive Spiritualities Frederique Apffel-Marglin, 2011-11-15 In this book Frederique Apffel Marglin draws on a lifetime of work with the indigenous peoples of Peru and India to support her argument that the beliefs values and practices of such traditional peoples are eco metaphysically true

Media Infrastructures and the Politics of Digital Time Axel Volmar, Kyle Stine, 2025-10-01 In a crucial sense all machines are time machines The essays in Media Infrastructures and the Politics of Digital Time develop the central concept of hardwired temporalities to consider how technical networks hardwire and rewire patterns of time Digital media introduce new temporal patterns in their features of instant communication synchronous collaboration intricate time management and continually improved speed They construct temporal infrastructures that affect the rhythms of lived experience and shape social relations and practices of cooperation Interdisciplinary in method and international in scope the volume draws together insights from media and communication studies cultural studies and science and technology studies while staging an important encounter between two distinct approaches to the temporal patterning of media infrastructures a North American strain emphasizing the social and cultural experiences of lived time and a European tradition prominent especially in Germany focusing on technological time and time critical processes

Philosophy of Emerging Media Juliet Floyd, James Everett Katz, 2016 The term emerging media responds to the big data now available as a result of the larger role digital media play in everyday life as well as the notion of emergence that has grown across the architecture of science and technology over the last two decades with increasing imbrication The permeation of everyday life by emerging media is evident ubiquitous and destined to accelerate No longer are images institutions social networks thoughts acts of communication emotions and speech the media by means of which we express ourselves in daily life linked to clearly demarcated stable entities and contexts Instead the loci of meaning within which these occur shift and evolve quickly emerging in far reaching ways we are only beginning to learn and bring about This volume s purpose is to develop broaden and spark future philosophical discussion of emerging media and their ways of shaping and reshaping the habitus within which everyday lives are to be understood Drawing from the history of philosophy ideas of influential thinkers in the past intellectual path makers on the contemporary scene offer new philosophical perspectives laying the groundwork for future work in philosophy and in media studies On diverse topics such as identity agency reality mentality time aesthetics representation consciousness materiality emergence and human nature the questions addressed here consider the extent to which philosophy should or should not take us to be facing a fundamental transformation
