Frances Stracey

Revolution Of Everyday Life:

Revolution of Everyday Life Raoul Vaneigem, 2012-10-05 Originally published just months before the May 1968 upheavals in France Raoul Vaneigem's The Revolution of Everyday Life offered a lyrical and aphoristic critique of the society of the spectacle from the point of view of individual experience Whereas Debord's masterful analysis of the new historical conditions that triggered the uprisings of the 1960s armed the revolutionaries of the time with theory Vaneigem's book described their feelings of desperation directly and armed them with formulations capable of firing point blank on our enemies I realise writes Vaneigem in his introduction that I have given subjective will an easy time in this book but let no one reproach me for this without first considering the extent to which the objective conditions of the contemporary world advance the cause of subjectivity day after day Vaneigem names and defines the alienating features of everyday life in consumer society survival rather than life the call to sacrifice the cultivation of false needs the dictatorship of the commodity subjection to social roles and above all the replacement of God by the Economy And in the second part of his book Reversal of Perspective he explores the countervailing impulses that in true dialectical fashion persist within the deepest alienation creativity spontaneity poetry and the path from isolation to communication and participation For To desire a different life is already that life in the making And fulfillment is expressed in the singular but conjugated in the plural The present English translation was first published by Rebel Press of London in 1983 This new edition of The Revolution of Everyday Life has been reviewed and corrected by the translator and contains a new preface addressed to English language readers by Raoul Vaneigem The book is the first of several translations of works by Raoul Vaneigem that PM Press plans to publish in uniform volumes Vaneigem's classic work is to be followed by The Knight the Lady the Devil and Death 2003 and The Inhumanity of Religion 2000

Revolution of Everyday Life Raoul Vaneigem, 1999-10-01 Finally back in print again the essential handbook for all of us still alienated by modern capitalism Together with Debord Vaneigem was the main theorist of Situationist ideas He has the added benefit of being eminently more readable An incredible work more potent now than ever We have a world of pleasures to win and nothing to lose but boredom You want to fuck around with us Not for long The Revolution of Everyday Life Raoul Vaneigem, 2012 One of the most important exponents of Situationist ideas this treatise presents an impassioned critique of modern capitalism and serves as a cornerstone of modern radical thought Originally published in early 1968 the book both kindled and colored the May 1968 upheavals in France that captured the attention of the world In the political climate of today Raoul Vaneigem's important work of radical anticapitalist thought has struck a new chord with the worldwide Occupy Movement Naming and defining the alienating features of everyday life in consumer society survival rather than living in f The World in Brooklyn Judith DeSena, Timothy Shortell, 2012-03-22 The World in Brooklyn Gentrification Immigration and Ethnic Politics in a Global City is a collection of scholarly papers which analyze demographic social political and economic trends that are occurring in Brooklyn Brooklyn as the context reflects global forces while also contributing to them The idea for this volume developed as the editors discovered a group of scholars from different disciplines and various universities studying Brooklyn Brooklyn has always been legendary and has more recently regained its stature as a much sought after place to live work and have fun Popular folklore has it that most U S residents trace their family origins to Brooklyn It is presently referred to as one of the hippest places in New York Thus this book is a collection of demographic ethnographic and comparative studies which focus on urban dynamics in Brooklyn The chapters investigate issues of social class urban development immigration race ethnicity and politics within the context of Brooklyn As a whole this book considers both theoretical and practical urban issues In most cases the scholarly perspective is on everyday life With this in mind there are also social justice concerns Issues of social segregation and attendant homogenization are brought to light Moreover social class and race advantages or disadvantages as part of urban processes are underscored through critiques of local policy decisions throughout the chapters A common thread is the assertion by contributors that planning the future of Brooklyn needs to include multi ethnic racial and economic groups those very residents who make up Brooklyn

Constructed Situations Frances Stracey, 2014-10-20 The Situationist International were a group of anti authoritarian highly cultured revolutionary artists whose energy and enagement fundamentally shaped the revolutions of the late 1960 s most famously in Paris in May 68 They took on their shoulders the history of the workers struggle saw that it had been corrupted by authoritarianism and transformed it with influences incorporating the avant garde via Dada and Surrealism They were not Marxologists defenders of the faith Marxism came back to life in their raging analyses the use of the spectacle and at the heart of the project was the idea of the constructed situation This book by Frances Stracey offers itself up as the first historiography of constructed situations Within it are new insights into the movement and with them a sense of relevance to political situations and practice today As an archivist Stracey uncovered new documents which amongst other things revealed how the SI related to representations of sexuality and is able to discuss whether they could be considered as feminists or not She also looked at their famous motto Never Work and again shows how alienated labour is even more relevant to us today Constructed Situations is not a history of celebrated personalities or cultural influences or political circumstances It is instead an open door to one of the most influential art movements in modern history and an invitation for us to reclaim inspiration from this ubiquitous movement

Cities for People, Not for Profit Neil Brenner, Peter Marcuse, Margit Mayer, 2012-06-25 The financial crisis has given new impetus to the struggles of oppositional urban social movements that have long emphasized the injustice destructiveness and unsustainability of capitalist forms of urbanization Through contributions by urban theorists sociologists geographers political scientists planners and activists the volume explores the possibilities for and constraints upon critical urban theory and practice today Ideas are linked by a common theme the difficulties that are created for people by cities organized for profit and the existing trends struggles and movements that might change their course to construct alternative forms of urbanism The slogan cities for people not for profit thus sets into stark relief what the authors view as a central political objective for ongoing efforts at once theoretical and practical to address the global urban crises of our time Understanding Henri Lefebvre Stuart Elden, 2004-03-01

Henri Lefebvre has been celebrated as one of the most influential social theorists of the twentieth century Understanding Henri Lefebvre places Lefebvre in his historical and intellectual context and analyzes the extraordinary range of his work across politics philosophy history literature and culture Particular emphasis is given to Lefebvre's trilogy of inspirational thinkers Hegel Marx and Nietzsche his links to contemporaries such as Heidegger Axelos and the Situationists and his critiques of existentialism and structuralism Analysis of his writings on cities are balanced with those on rural communities the production of space connected to ideas of time and history and everyday life linked to the festival and cultural revolution Understanding Henri Lefebvre offers the most wide ranging and reliable account of this central theorist available Agnes Heller John Grumley, 2004-12-20 Agnes Heller is one of the leading thinkers to come out of the tradition of critical theory Her awesome intellectual range and output includes ethics philosophical anthropology political philosophy and a theory of modernity and its culture Hungarian by birth she was one of the best known dissident Marxists in central Europe in the 1960s and 1970s Since her forced immigration she has held visiting lectureships all over the world and has been the Hannah Arendt Professor of Philosophy at the New School in New York for the last twenty years This introduction to her thought is ideal for all students of philosophy political theory and sociology Grumley explores Heller's early work elaborating her relation to Lukacs and the evolution of her own version of Marxism He examines the subsequent break with Marxism and the initial development of an alternative radical philosophy Finally he explains and assesses her mature reflective post modernism a perspective that is both sceptical and utopian that upholds a critical humanist perspective just as it critiques contemporary democratic culture The Society of the Spectacle Guy Debord, 2024-09-03

The Society of the Spectacle is a carefully considered effort to clarify the most fundamental tendencies and contradictions of the society in which we find ourselves in order to facilitate its overthrow Guy Debord was the founder of the Situationist International the notorious avant garde group that helped trigger the May 1968 revolt in France which brought the entire country to a standstill for several weeks His book The Society of the Spectacle originally published in Paris in 1967 has been translated into more than twenty other languages and is arguably the most important radical work of the twentieth century Ken Knabb's meticulous new translation is the first edition in any language to include extensive annotations clarifying the historical allusions and revealing the sources of Debord's quotations and d' tournaments Contrary to popular misconceptions Debord's book is neither an ivory tower philosophical discourse nor a mere expression of protest This makes the book more of a challenge but it is also why it remains so pertinent more than half a century after its original publication while countless other social theories and intellectual fads have come and gone It has in fact become even more pertinent than ever because the spectacle has become more all pervading and glaringly obvious than ever As Debord noted in his follow up work Comments on the Society of the Spectacle 1988 spectacular domination has succeeded in raising an entire generation molded to its laws Debord's book remains the best guidebook to understanding that mold and breaking it Everyday Cinema Marc Lafia, 2017 Everyday Cinema presents the films eight features and numerous shorts computational and installation films of Marc Lafia In his many films including Exploding Oedipus Love and Art Confessions of an Image Revolution of Everyday Life Paradise Hi How Are You Guest 10497 and 27 Lafia probes what it is to construct an image to forge systems of representation to see and represent ourselves His work has been defined as a cinema of emergence a cinema of the event in which the very act of ubiquitous recording creates something new Everyday Cinema is comprised of two parts the first an in depth look at his films and installations project by project providing background on how they came about Lafia's process and ideas The second part features selected interviews and over two hundred film stills wherein Lafia puts forward a new sense of the possibility of the cinema As we all relentlessly record ourselves and are recorded we become part of the cinematic fabric of life part of a spectacle of which we are both constituent and constitutive This is what Lafia sets out to capture and examine With a Preface by Daniel Coffeen
