Cognitive Ecopoetics Sharon Lattig, 2020-11-12 New insights from cognitive theory and literary ecocriticism have the power to transform our understanding of one of the most important literary genres the lyric poem In Cognitive Ecopoetics Sharon Lattig brings these two schools of criticism together for the first time to consider the ways in which lyric forms reenact cognitive processes of the mind and brain Along the way the book reads anew the long history of the lyric from Andrew Marvell through canonical poets such as Samuel Taylor Coleridge Ralph Waldo Emerson and Emily Dickinson to contemporary writers such as Susan Howe and Charles Olson The War on Sex Chad Denton, 2014-11-19 From earliest times sex has fascinated and repulsed society in equal measure In an effort to untangle Western society's complex relationship with the realities of sex this provocative volume explores the ways in which governments religious leaders and cultures in Europe tried to regulate sex and sexuality throughout history From the sacred texts of ancient Israel to the slums of 19th century Britain this book explores political legal and cultural controls on consensual sex and the individuals and movements that resisted them Topics range from prostitution and homosexuality to marriage contraception and abortion While traditional narrative holds that Europe alternated between sexual freedom and oppression through the Victorian age this work reveals that the real story of how sex was regulated and how people defied regulation is not so clear cut
