Sarai Reader 03 Shaping Technologies:

Utopia in the Factory Rhiannon Firth, John Preston, 2025-07-31 This book is open access The idea that automation Artificial Intelligence AI and Robotics might lead to a utopian future for humanity is a powerful one both in mainstream and radical discourse The paradigm of Industry 4.0 where digital manufacturing enables the seamless production of goods and services and lights out factories where machines and robots effortlessly produce for our future needs and wants are powerful drivers of a capitalist free market cybertopia For some radicals technology and automation produce the conditions for a Fully Automated Luxury Communism drawing on an interpretation of Marx where human work would be replaced by a life of leisure and abundance for all For others an earlier discourse cybernetics and the use of AI and social media in communication and coordination enable forms of radical organization through anarchist cybernetics This book questions that technological optimism particularly cybernetics automation and AI through a critique of these technologies and organizational forms Cybernetics and corresponding technologies and forms particularly Industry 4.0 can never capture human forms of creativity and working practices Furthermore there are similar problems with the cybernetic paradigm as a radical form of organization or social movement in terms of human autonomy creativity desire and social prefiguration As counterpoint the book shows through empirical evidence and drawing on interviews with workers or activists in a variety of organizational forms that tacit knowledge and autonomous and spontaneous human projects what the authors define as hobbying are critical in the physical act of making and co operating

Homi Bhabha: An Introduction and Critique, Volume 3: Political Theory and Practice Andrew McLaverty-Robinson, 2020-01-31 Homi Bhabha An Introduction and Critique is a pathbreaking three volume study of the celebrated postcolonial scholar's work McLaverty Robinson's careful reading renders Bhabha's theories in plain English without losing their meaning In addition McLaverty Robinson's incisive critique cuts through the theoretical aura of Bhabha's work and explores whether his theories work in practice either empirically or politically This third and final volume explores the political content and implications of Bhabha's work It explores Bhabha's political proposals such as the ideas of a community of suffering and a right to narrate It also explores Bhabha's relationship to neoliberalism and to the Eurocommunist current in the 1980s and his critical engagements with liberalism communitarianism Marxism critical race theory Deleuze and Guattari and Frantz Fanon This volume also includes an entire chapter providing a background on neoliberalism and a comprehensive index covering all three volumes

Art Hack Practice Victoria Bradbury, Suzy O'Hara, 2019-10-29 Bridging art and innovation this book invites readers into the processes of artists curators cultural producers and historians who are working within new contexts that run parallel to or against the phenomenon of maker culture The book is a fascinating and compelling resource for those interested in critical and interdisciplinary modes of practice that combine arts technology and making It presents international case studies that interrogate perceived distinctions between sites of artistic and economic production by brokering new ways of working between them It also discusses the synergies and dissonances between art and maker culture analyses the social and collaborative impact of maker spaces and reflects upon the ethos of the hackathon within the fabric of a media lab s working practices Art Hack Practice Critical Intersections of Art Innovation and the Maker Movement is essential reading for courses in art design new media computer science media studies and mass communications as well as those working to bring new forms of programming to museums cultural venues commercial venture and interdisciplinary academic research centres

Infrastructure and Form Karin Zitzewitz,2022-09-06 In the 1990s and 2000s contemporary art in India changed radically in form as an art world once dominated by painting began to support installation new media and performance In response to the liberalization of India s economy art was cultivated by a booming market as well as by new nonprofit institutions that combined strong local roots and transnational connections The result was an unprecedented efflorescence of contemporary art and growth of a network of institutions radiating out from India Among the first studies of contemporary South Asian art Infrastructure and Form engages with sixteen of India s leading contemporary artists and art collectives to examine what made this development possible Karin Zitzewitz articulates the connections among formal trajectories of medium and material curatorial frames and networks of circulation and the changing conditions of everyday life after economic liberalization By untangling the complex interactions of infrastructure and form the book offers a discussion of the barriers and conduits that continue to shape global contemporary art and its relationship to capital more broadly Thinking

Through Digital Media D. Hudson,P. Zimmermann,2015-04-09 Thinking through Digital Media Transnational Environments and Locative Places speculates on animation documentary experimental interactive and narrative media that probe human machine performances virtual migrations global warming structural inequality and critical cartographies across Brazil Canada China India USA and elsewhere The Ethics of Mobilities Tore Sager,2016-03-23 With this book the international academic discourse on mobility is taken a step further through the intertwined perspectives of different social sciences engineering and the humanities The Ethics of Mobilities departs from the recent interest in social surveillance raised by the use of technology for the surveillance and control of mobility as well as for transport It widens this theme to encompass a broad scale of issues ranging from freedom and escape to social exclusion and control thus raising important questions of ethics identity and religion questions that are dealt with by a diverse yet structured range of chapters arranged around the themes of ethics and religion and freedom and control Through their variety and diversity of perspectives the chapters of this book offer a substantial interdisciplinary contribution to the socially and environmentally relevant discussion about what a technically and economically accelerating mobility does to life and how it might be transformed to sustain a more life enhancing future Ethics of Mobilities will excite not only international interest but will also appeal to scholars across a wide range of disciplines in fields as diverse as theology and engineering Indian Science Fiction Suparno Banerjee,2020-10-15 This study includes a larger scope previously not seen in any other critical work about Indian Science

Fiction The reader will get an overarching notion of Science Fiction in India not just in one particular language It is a detailed examination of the history of Science Fiction in India The reader will receive a comprehensive idea of the emergence and development of Science Fiction in India over the last two centuries across various languages including discussion on major trends major texts and major authors A timeline of major events is included It is a comparative examination of Science Fiction texts and films from multiple languages e g Assamese Bangla English Hindi Marathi etc Global Digital Cultures

Aswin Punathambekar, Sriram Mohan, 2019-06-06 Digital media histories are part of a global network and South Asia is a key nexus in shaping the trajectory of digital media in the twenty first century Digital platforms like Facebook WhatsApp and others are deeply embedded in the daily lives of millions of people around the world shaping how people engage with others as kin as citizens and as consumers Moving away from Anglo American and strictly national frameworks the essays in this book explore the intersections of local national regional and global forces that shape contemporary digital culture s in regions like South Asia the rise of digital and mobile media technologies the ongoing transformation of established media industries and emergent forms of digital media practice and use that are reconfiguring sociocultural political and economic terrains across the Indian subcontinent From massive state driven digital identity projects and YouTube censorship to Tinder and dating culture from Twitter and primetime television to Facebook and political rumors Global Digital Cultures focuses on enduring concerns of representation identity and power while grappling with algorithmic curation and data driven processes of production circulation and consumption Cities Under Siege Stephen Graham, 2011-11-01 Cities are the new battleground of our increasingly urban world From the slums of the global South to the wealthy financial centers of the West Cities Under Siege traces the spread of political violence through the sites spaces infrastructure and symbols of the world s rapidly expanding metropolitan areas Drawing on a wealth of original research Stephen Graham shows how Western militaries and security forces now perceive all urban terrain as a conflict zone inhabited by lurking shadow enemies Urban inhabitants have become targets that need to be continually tracked scanned and controlled Graham examines the transformation of Western armies into high tech urban counter insurgency forces He looks at the militarization and surveillance of international borders the use of security concerns to suppress democratic dissent and the enacting of legislation to suspend civilian law In doing so he reveals how the New Military Urbanism permeates the entire fabric of urban life from subway and transport networks hardwired with high tech command and control systems to the insidious militarization of a popular culture corrupted by the all pervasive discourse of terrorism Where There is No Midwife Sarah Pinto, 2008 In the Sitapur district of Uttar Pradesh an agricultural region with high rates of infant mortality maternal health services are poor while family planning efforts are intensive By following the daily lives of women in this setting the author considers the women s own experiences of birth and infant death their ways of making do and the hierarchies they create and contend with This book develops an approach to the care that focuses on emotion domestic spaces illicit and extra institutional biomedicine and household and neighborly relations that these women are able to access It shows that as part of the concatenation of affect and access globalized moralities about reproduction are dependent on ambiguous ideas about caste Through the unfolding of birth and death a new vision of untouchability emerges that is integral to visions of progress Jacket
