Sarawak Crafts:

Sarawak Crafts Heidi Munan, 1989 The carving metalwork plaiting and basketry beadwork and weaving of the Borneo people of Sarawak reflect their environment beliefs and their simple way of life Although market demands and the availability of materials are bringing about many changes the skill and artistry of the indigenous people of Sarawak remain ABOUT THE AUTHOR Heidi Munan has lived in Kuching and written about Borneo culture for over 30 years The Crafts of Malaysia

Datohaji S. Othman, 1994 The Crafts of Malaysia documents the development of Malaysian crafts from the past to the present principally the traditions of pottery fibre craft wood carving textile weaving and metalwork This lavishly produced volume combines beautiful studio photography of objects and location photography of craftspeople at work with images drawn from archives and is a visual feast of crafts It celebrates the masterpieces in the collections of Muzium Negara and the state museums the living crafts of Malaysia today as well as the new crafts promoted and developed by Kraftangan the Malaysian national craft organization BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

The Changing Face of Malaysian Crafts Barbara Leigh, 2000 This lavishly illustrated volume shows how items such as metalware songket batik woodcarving and kites have become part of Malaysia's cultural identity in the twentieth century Author Barbara Leigh celebrates both the ingenuity of the practicing artisan and the technological advances in Malaysia's craft industry Borneo Studies in History, Society and Culture Victor T. King, Zawawi Ibrahim, Noor Hasharina Hassan, 2016-08-12 This edited book is the first major review of what has been achieved in Borneo Studies to date Chapters in this book situate research on Borneo within the general disciplinary fields of the social sciences with the weight of attention devoted to anthropological research and related fields such as development studies gender studies environmental studies social policy studies and cultural studies Some of the chapters in this book are extended versions of presentations at the Borneo Research Council's international conference hosted by Universiti Brunei Darussalam in June 2012 and a Borneo Studies workshop organised in Brunei in 2012 The volume examines some of the major debates and controversies in Borneo Studies including those which have served to connect post war research on Borneo to wider scholarship It also assesses some of the more recent contributions and interests of locally based researchers in universities and other institutions in Borneo itself The major strength of the book is the inclusion of a substantial amount of research undertaken by scholars working and teaching within the Southeast Asian region In particular there is an examination of research materials published in the vernacular notably the outpouring of work published in Indonesian by the Institut Dayakologi in Pontianak In doing so the book also addresses the urgent matters which have not received the attention they deserve specifically subjects themes and issues that have already been covered but require further contemplation elaboration and research and the scope for disciplinary and multidisciplinary collaboration in Borneo Studies The book is a valuable resource and reference work for students and researchers interested in social science scholarship on Borneo and for those with wider interests in Indonesia and Malaysia and in the Southeast Asian region
