Sarvistan A Study In Early Iranian Architecture:

Sarvistan Lionel Bier, 2009-05 Sarvistan: A Study in Early Iranian Architecture , Early Islamic Art, 650-1100 Oleg Grabar, 2023-04-28 Early Islamic Art 650 1100 is the first in a set of four volumes of studies by Oleg Grabar Between them they bring together more than eighty articles studies and essays work spanning half a century Each volume takes a particular section of the topic the three subsequent volumes being entitled Islamic Visual Culture 1100 1800 Islamic Art and Beyond and Jerusalem Reflecting the many incidents of a long academic life they illustrate one scholar s attempt at making order and sense of 1400 years of artistic growth They deal with architecture painting objects iconography theories of art aesthetics and ornament and they seek to integrate our knowledge of Islamic art with Islamic culture and history as well as with the global concerns of the History of Art In addition to the articles selected each volume contains an introduction which describes often in highly personal ways the context in which Grabar s scholarship developed and the people who directed and mentored his efforts The present volume concentrates primarily on documents provided by archaeology understood in its widest sense and including the study of texts with reference to monuments or to the contexts of these monuments The articles included represent major contributions to the understanding of the formative centuries of Islamic art focusing on the Umayyad 661 750 and Fatimid 969 1171 dynasties in Greater Syria and in Egypt and on the Mediterranean or Iranian antecedents of early Islamic art Historical cultural and religious themes including the role of court ceremonies the growth of cities and the importance of the Qur an are introduced to help explain how a new art was formed in the central lands of the Near East and how its language can be retrieved from visual or written sources Sasanian Iran in the Context of Late Antiquity , 2021-02-01 This volume is a collection of papers on the various aspects of Sasanian world which were delivered at the University of Oxford in 2014 Eminent scholars in such fields as numismatics history art history Pahlavi and Zoroastrian Studies provide important observations on the Sasanian Empire and its influence and contact with the neighboring civilizations as well as the internal developments throughout the four centuries in which the Sasanians held power on the Iranian Plateau and beyond This volume was previously published by the Jordan Center for Persian Studies University of California Irvine Persian Kingship and Architecture Sussan Babaie, Talinn Grigor, 2015-02-17 Since the Shah went into exile and the Islamic Republic was established in 1979 in the wake of the Iranian Revolution the very idea of monarchy in Iran has been contentious Yet as Persian Kingship and Architecture argues the institution of kingship has historically played a pivotal role in articulating the abstract notion of Iran since antiquity These ideas surrounding kingship and nation have in turn served as a unifying cultural force despite shifting political and religious allegiances Through analyses of palaces mausolea art architectural decoration and urban design the authors show how architecture was appropriated by different rulers as an integral part of their strategies of legitimising power They refer to a variety of examples from the monuments of Persepolis under the Achaemenids the Sassanian palaces at Kish the Safavid public squares of Isfahan the Qajar palaces at Shiraz and to the modernisation and urban agendas of the Pahlavis Drawing on archaeology ancient medieval early and modern architectural history both Islamic and secular this book is indispensable for all those interested in Iranian studies and visual culture The Art and Architecture of Islam 1250-1800 Sheila S. Blair, Jonathan M. Bloom, 1996-09-25 They discuss for example how the universal caliphs of the first six centuries gave way to regional rulers and how in this new world order Iranian forms techniques and motifs played a dominant role in the artistic life of most of the Muslim world the one exception was the Maghrib an area protected from the full brunt of the Mongol invasions where traditional models continued to inspire artists and patrons By the sixteenth century say the authors the eastern Mediterranean under the Ottomans and the area of northern India under the Mughals had become more powerful and the Iranian models of early Ottoman and Mughal art gradually gave way to distinct regional and imperial styles Early Islamic Iran Edmund Herzig, Sarah Stewart, 2011-11-08 How did Iran remain distinctively Iranian in the centuries which followed the Arab Conquest How did it retain its cultural distinctiveness after the displacement of Zoroastrianism state religion of the Persian empire by Islam This latest volume in The Idea of Iran series traces that critical moment in Iranian history which followed the transformation of ancient traditions during the country's conversion and initial Islamic period Distinguished contributors who include the late Oleg Grabar Roy Mottahedeh Alan Williams and Said Amir Arjomand discuss from a variety of literary artistic religious and cultural perspectives the years around the end of the first millennium CE when the political strength of the Abbasid Caliphate was on the wane and when the eastern lands of the Islamic empire began to be taken on a fresh Persianate or Perso Islamic character One of the paradoxes of this era is that the establishment throughout the eastern Islamic territories of new Turkish dynasties coincided with the genesis and spread into Central and South Asia of vibrant new Persian language and literatures Exploring the nature of this paradox separate chapters engage with ideas of kingship authority and identity and their fascinating expression through the written word architecture and the visual arts Islamic Art and Architecture 650-1250 Richard Ettinghausen, Oleg Grabar, Professor Emeritus of Islamic Art and Architecture Oleg Grabar, Marilyn Jenkins, 2003-07-11 This richly illustrated book provides an unsurpassed overview of Islamic art and architecture from the seventh to the thirteenth centuries a time of the formation of a new artistic culture and its first medieval flowering in the vast area from the Atlantic to India Inspired by Ettinghausen and Grabar's original text this book has been completely rewritten and updated to take into account recent information and methodological advances The volume focuses special attention on the development of numerous regional centers of art in Spain North Africa Egypt Syria Anatolia Iraq and Yemen as well as the western and northeastern provinces of Iran It traces the cultural and artistic evolution of such centers in the seminal early Islamic period and examines the wealth of different ways of creating a beautiful environment The book approaches the arts with new classifications of architecture and architectural decoration the art of the object and the art of the book With many new illustrations often in color this volume broadens the picture of Islamic artistic production and discusses objects in a wide range of media including textiles ceramics metal and wood The book incorporates extensive accounts of the cultural contexts of the arts and defines the originality of each period A final chapter explores the impact of Islamic art on the creativity of non Muslims within the Islamic realm and in areas surrounding the Muslim world In
