Saskatchewan Landscapes

Patrick Douaud, Todd A. Radenbaugh

Saskatchewan Landscapes:

Changing Prairie Landscapes Patrick Douaud, Todd A. Radenbaugh, 2000 Landscapes of the Northern Great Plains have been constantly changing but never so rapidly as under modern conditions of economic affluence and technological development This change is multifaceted and has an impact not only on the fabric of culture and its perception of landscape but also on the ecology and physical landforms Multidisciplinary research has therefore become an important tool in identifying the influences that human activities have not only on cultural landscapes but on biophysical ones as well This collection of articles originating in a conference held at the Royal Saskatchewan Museum in April 2000 focuses on just such an integration of research concerning the Great Plains of North America and involving the disciplines of geology archaeology biology geography sociology and agriculture Managing Changing Prairie Landscapes University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, 2005 Articles originating in the Plain as the Eye Can See Public Forum Conference held in Regina May 15 17 2003 Storied Landscapes Frances Swyripa, 2010-09-01 Storied Landscapes is a beautifully written sweeping examination of the evolving identity of major ethno religious immigrant groups in the Canadian West Viewed through the lens of attachment to the soil and specific place and through the eyes of both the immigrant generation and its descendants the book compares the settlement experiences of Ukrainians Mennonites Icelanders Doukhobors Germans Poles Romanians Jews Finns Swedes Norwegians and Danes It reveals how each group s sense of identity was shaped by a complex interplay of physical and emotional ties to land and place and how that sense of belonging influenced and was influenced by relationships not only within the prairies and the Canadian nation state but also with the homeland and its extended diaspora Through a close study of myths symbols commemorative traditions and landmarks Storied Landscapes boldly asserts the inseparability of ethnicity and religion both to defining the prairie region and to understanding the Canadian nation building project Three Hundred Prairie Years University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, 1993 Landscapes and Landforms of Western Canada Olav Slaymaker, 2016-12-01 This is the only book to focus on the geomorphological landscapes of Canada West It outlines the little appreciated diversity of Canada s landscapes and the nature of the geomorphological landscape which deserves wider publicity Three of the most important geomorphological facts related to Canada are that 90% of its total area emerged from ice sheet cover relatively recently from a geological perspective permafrost underlies 50% of its landmass and the country enjoys the benefits of having three oceans as its borders the Arctic Pacific and Atlantic oceans Canada West is a land of extreme contrasts from the rugged Cordillera to the wide open spaces of the Prairies from the humid west coast forests to the semi desert in the interior of British Columbia and from the vast Mackenzie river system of the to small steep cascading streams on Vancouver Island The thickest Canadian permafrost is found in the Yukon and extensive areas of the Cordillera are underlain by sporadic permafrost side by side with the never glaciated plateaus of the Yukon One of the curiosities of Canada West is the presence of volcanic landforms extruded through the ice cover of the late Pleistocene and Holocene epochs which have also left a strong imprint on the landscape The Mackenzie and Fraser deltas provide the contrast of large river deltas debouching respectively into the Arctic and Pacific oceans

Saskatchewan's Communities in the 21st Century Jack C. Stabler, Margaret Rose Olfert, University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, 2002 This report traces the evolution of Saskatchewan's trade centre system for the 40 years between 1961-2001 For assessing classifying communities into functional categories 68 variables are used In assessing a community's status future prospects the systematic trade centre relationships the demand thresholds required to support trade service activities and the impact of non systematic events such as the establishment of a manufacturing plant or mine are taken into account The relationship between infrastructure economic development is also discussed The events summarized emphasize a continuous extension of the geographic framework within which people journey to work shop attend school obtain health care and in general live their everyday lives In this process the concept of community as a functional entity has evolved from village or town to a region large enough to satisfy the everyday requirements of rural dwellers

David Alexander Liz Wylie, 2012-01-10 In Canada it can be easy to consider landscape painting as cliché an art form whose time has passed David Alexander's vibrant large scale works show the wonder and possibility that remain undiminished in paintings of the natural environment and breathe new life into the landscape tradition Gathering together six essays on Alexander this book provides insight into Alexander's inspiration creative drive and the unique engagement with nature that has led him to seek out and paint remote locales across Canada and as far away as Greenland Iceland New Mexico and Argentina Award winning writer Sharon Butala contributes an extended meditation on her first encounter with the artist and his work An interview with Robert Enright reveals Alexander's engagement with tradition and texts by the late Gilbert Bouchard Ihor Holubizky A alsteinn Ing lfsso and Liz Wylie present a variety of insights into understanding and appreciating his art A detailed chronology of Alexander's career is included Reproductions of his major works appear throughout and the essays are illustrated with preliminary paintings and working sketches conveying insight into his creative process A valuable discovery for those interested in nature and its artistic renderings Alexander s art is about conveying an immersion in the landscape This book allows a similar presence within his lushly painted landscapes imparting an intimate understanding of his art
