Satellite Sex The Media And Womens Issues In English Canada 19661971:

The Satellite Sex Barbara M. Freeman, 2001-05-02 Citing a lack of strong feminist voices in contemporary Canadian media Freeman journalism Carleton U Ottawa was motivated to write this first book length analysis of news media coverage of women s issues in Canada The period 1966 1971 is seen as a critical period in Canadian feminist history during which time the Canadian government appointed a federal inquiry into women s issues the Royal Commission on the Status of Women Freeman examines the relationship between the Commission and the media the reporters understandings of professional practice and the ways in which they covered issues from the hearings and the Commission s Report She argues that an understanding of media coverage of gender issues in the past may lead to thoughtful and effective coverage now and in the future Accessible to a general audience c Book News Inc

Beyond Bylines Barbara M. Freeman, 2012-08-01 Beyond Bylines Media Workers and Women s Rights in Canada explores the ways in which several of Canada s women journalists broadcasters and other media workers reached well beyond the glory of their personal bylines to advocate for the most controversial women s rights of their eras To do so some of them adopted conventional feminine identities while others refused to conform altogether openly and defiantly challenging the gender expectations of their day The book consists of a series of case studies of the women in question as they grappled with the concerns close to their hearts higher education for women healthy dress reforms the vote equal opportunities at work abortion lesbianism and Aboriginal women s rights Their media reflected their respective eras intellectual magazines daily and weekly newspapers radio feminist public relations alternative women s periodicals and documentary film made for television Barbara Freeman takes an interdisciplinary approach combining biography history and communication studies to demonstrate how their use of different media both enabled and limited these women in their ability to be daring advocates for gender equality She shows how a number of these women were linked through the generations by their memberships in activist women s organizations

Women in Radio Geneviève A. Bonin-Labelle, 2020-09-22 Who are au f minin the legends who shaped radio in Canada What did they contribute locally regionally and nationally How was their experience in radio broadcasting different from that of their male counterparts Women in Radio presents the women who built careers in the radio industry yet whose contribution has often been overlooked simply because they were women This collection of stories highlights the multi faceted contributions they made to their field and explores issues specific to them Academic research interviews personal reflections and accounts historical reviews and hybrid texts combine neatly in this eclectic yet well researched edited volume to reflect the fast paced world of radio broadcasting Whether through storytelling direct quotes or quasi transcriptions best read aloud the reader will come away with a real sense of the aural nature of radio of the voice unaccompanied of the pure spoken word and how it differs from the printed word Published in English

The Palgrave International Handbook of Women and Journalism Carolyn M. Byerly, 2016-01-12 Now in paperback for the first time the Handbook is an academic adaptation of information contained in the Global Report on the Status of Women in News Media a study commissioned by the International Women's Media Foundation The book's editor was the principal investigator of the original study This text draws together the most robust data from that original study presenting it in 29 chapters on individual nations and three additional theoretical chapters The book is the most expansive effort to date to consider women's standing in the journalism profession across the world Contents organize nations in relation to their progress within newsrooms with those most advanced in gender equality representing diversity in terms of region and national development Contributing authors are in most cases the original researchers for their respective nations in the Global Report study

Abortion Shannon Stettner, Kristin Burnett, Travis Hay, 2017-12-01 When Henry Morgentaler Canada's best known abortion rights advocate died in 2013 activists and scholars began to reassess the state of abortion in this country In Abortion some of the foremost researchers in Canada challenge current thinking by revealing the discrepancy between what people are experiencing on the ground and what people believe the law to be after the 1988 Morgentaler decision Grouped into four themes History Experience Politics and Reproductive Justice these essays showcase new theoretical frameworks and approaches from law history medicine women's studies and political science as they document the diversity of abortion experiences across the country from those of Indigenous women in the pre Morgentaler era to a lack of access in the age of so called decriminalization Together the contributors make a case for shifting the debate from abortion rights to reproductive justice and caution against focusing on choice or medicalization without understanding the broader context of why and when people seek out abortions

Women's Health in Canada Marina Morrow, Olena Hankivsky, Colleen Varcoe, 2022-01-27 Women's Health in Canada considers the challenges relating to the conceptualization of women's health While emphasizing the importance of taking an intersectional approach to women's healthcare this book also focuses on the social and structural determinants at play This revised and updated second edition brings together a collection of new chapters and contributors who collectively shed light on the problems and risks involved in perceiving women's healthcare using a strictly gender or sex based lens Contributors foreground an understanding of power as it is mediated through a range of social relations based on gender race culture ethnicity sexuality ability class and geography and the ways in which privilege and oppression intersect to shape health and system responses to health This new edition includes updates on what is currently known about women's health nationally and internationally and situates the chapters in the current Canadian health care and policy context Scholarship is foregrounded in new developments in gender and intersectional health research and policy Collectively this volume explores the important histories and contemporary realities in women's health experiences

Gender and Media in the Broadcast Age Justine Lloyd, 2020-01-01 The 20th century was a time of rapid expansion in media industries as well as of accelerating demands for equality and recognition for women While women's agency has typically been defined through the domestic sphere the introduction of media into the home destabilised firm boundaries between public and private spheres Gender and Media in the Broadcast Age demonstrates how women as media producers and audiences in three countries with public service broadcasters UK Canada and Australia have contributed to changes in our understandings of public and private Justine Lloyd offers a new way of understanding how tremendous changes in social definitions of gender roles played out in media forms worldwide during this period through the notion of intimate geographies Women's participation in media continues to be a key challenge to notions of the public sphere and the book concludes that profound changes initiated in the broadcast era are unfinished in the age of digital media Lloyd therefore provides rich and valuable evidence of the dynamic relationship between media texts producers and audiences that is relevant to contemporary debates about a growing gender apartheid in a mediated culture

Alternative Media in Canada Kirsten Kozolanka, Patricia Mazepa, David Skinner, 2012-04-25 Alternative media hold the promise of building public awareness and action against the constraints and limitations of media conglomeration and cutbacks to public broadcasting These media are becoming key venues for community expression and political debate but what is it that makes them alternative The contributors to this path breaking volume answer this question by examining the evolution of various kinds of alternative media including indigenous anarchist ethnic and feminist media against the backdrop of political economic and cultural developments in Canada They get at the heart of alternative media by focusing on the three interconnected dimensions that define them structure participation and activism Alternative Media in Canada not only reveals how alternative media are enabled and constrained within Canada's complex media and policy environment it also shows that in the context of globalization the Canadian experience parallels media and policy challenges in other nations
