The Theater of Experiment Al Coppola, 2016-08-19 The first book length study of the relationship between science and theater during the long eighteenth century in Britain The Theater of Experiment explores the crucial role of spectacle in the establishment of modern science by analyzing how eighteenth century science was staged in a double sense On the one hand this study analyzes science in performance the way that science and scientists were made a public spectacle in comedies farces and pantomimes for purposes that could range from the satiric to the pedagogic to the hagiographic But this book also considers the way in which these plays laid bare science as performance that is the way that eighteenth century science was itself a kind of performing art subject to regimes of stagecraft that traversed the laboratory the lecture hall the anatomy theater and the public stage Not only did the representation of natural philosophy in eighteenth century plays like Thomas Shadwell s Virtuoso Aphra Behn s The Emperor of the Moon Susanna Centlivre s The Basset Table and John Rich s Necromancer or Harelequin Doctor Faustus influence contemporary debates over the role that experimental science was to play public life the theater shaped the very form that science itself was to take By disciplining and ultimately helping to legitimate experimental philosophy the eighteenth century stage helped to naturalize an epistemology based on self evident decontextualized facts that might speak for themselves In this the stage and the lab jointly fostered an Enlightenment culture of spectacle that transformed the conditions necessary for the production and dissemination of scientific knowledge Precisely because Enlightenment public science initiatives taking their cue from the public stages came to embrace the stagecraft and spectacle that Restoration natural philosophy sought to repress from the scene of experimental knowledge production eighteenth century science organized itself around not the sober masculine modest witness of experiment but the sentimental feminized eager observer of scientific performance The Dreadful Word Kristin A. Olbertson, 2022-03-10 Introduction A politer peace Sensibility Civility Credibility Cacophony Respectability Literature and Science, 1660-1834, Part I. Volume 2 Judith Hawley, 2024-10-28 This volume reproduces primary texts which embody the polymathic nature of the literature of science and provides editorial overviews and extensive references to provide a resource for specialized academics and researchers with a broad cultural interest in the long 18th century
