Savage Encounter:

Red, White & Black Frank B. Wilderson III, 2010-03-19 Red White one by an Indian director Skins Chris Eyre and one by a White director Monster s Ball Marc Foster These films present Red and Black people beleaguered by problems such as homelessness and the repercussions of incarceration They portray social turmoil in terms of conflict as problems that can be solved at least theoretically if not in the given narratives Wilderson maintains that at the narrative level they fail to recognize that the turmoil is based not in conflict but in fundamentally irreconcilable racial antagonisms Yet as he explains those antagonisms are unintentionally disclosed in the films non narrative strategies in decisions regarding matters such as lighting camera angles and sound

Redefining Reason Bradley W. Patterson, 2018-11-16 Throughout the twentieth century Western thinkers engaged in a politically charged often highly personal and acrimonious debate over the mental and rational capacity of people from traditional nonliterate societies The issue was a question of whether or not humanity was at bottom psychologically and rationally unified and equal as a species Redefining Reason offers the first in depth critical history of that debate and its repercussions in modern Western thought and society Divided into three sections this book first sets the twentieth century primitive mentality debate within its historical context so that it may be better understood It then focuses on some of the highlights of the debate The next section suggests that this debate was in reality a chapter itself in or in an aspect of a much larger story the story of what may be appropriately referred to as the hyperrationalization of human society To conclude this book follows the debate into the twenty first century and offers the clarification and resolutions developed in earlier chapters to contemporary students scholars and educated lay readers

South African Horror Cinema Calum Waddell, 2025-08-21 This is the first study to explore South Africa both in horror cinema and as a formidable producer of celluloid scares From framing the notorious apartheid system as a mental asylum in the ground breaking and criminally underseen Jannie Totsiens Jans Rautenbach 1970 to such seventies exploitation shockers as The Demon Percival Rubens 1979 through to the blockbuster hit District 9 Neill Blomkamp 2009 and beyond this book suggests that South Africa should finally obtain its rightful place in the canon of wider genre studies and horror cinema fandom Taking in the 80s nightmares of Darrell Roodt and concluding with an analysis of the recent boom period in South African fright films including discussion of such contemporary efforts as The Tokoloshe Jerome Pikwane 2018 and the Troma esque leanings of Fried Barry Ryan Kruger 2020 South African Horror Cinema focuses on ever changing identities and perspectives and embraces the frequently carnivalesque and grotesque elements of a most unique lineage in macabre motion pictures

Disciplined Natives Satadru Sen, 2012 This volume examines three interrelated aspects of the history of British India race the disciplining institution and attempts by the colonized to imagine states of freedom They deal with sites as diverse as the prison the family the classroom the playing field and children s literature The essays confront the ideological social and political ramifications of the fact that even as metropolitan prisons and schools shifted their attention from the body to the confined soul colonial disciplinary institutions ensured that race was firmly attached to the body and its habits They also engage the historiography that has sought to underline the challenges of reconciling Michel Foucault and Edward Said They ask whether the liberating possibilities of the racialized and embodied native self were confined to inversions and rearrangements of given normative hierarchies or if we can occasionally glimpse radical departures and alternative configurations of power
