Saving The Daylight Why We Put The Clocks Forward:

Saving The Daylight David S. Prerau, 2014-03-06 Benjamin Franklin conceived it Sir Arthur Conan Doyle endorsed it Winston Churchill campaigned for it Kaiser Wilhelm first employed it Woodrow Wilson and Franklin Roosevelt went to war with it Every spring the clocks go forward and every autumn they go back Saving the Daylight explores for the first time the contentious and often entertaining story of this deceptively simple attempt to regulate the sunlight hours Throughout its surprisingly controversial history Daylight Saving Time has been claimed to have influenced a wide variety of areas including agricultural practices the reporting of sports scores street crime voter turnout and many other sometimes unexpected aspects of daily life The book brings together the historical political and technical aspects of the fascinating story behind the movement for DST with many light and offbeat anecdotes

British Literature and Culture in Second World Wartime Beryl Pong, 2020-05-14 British Literature and Culture in Second World Wartime excavates British late modernism's relationship to war in terms of chronophobia a joint fear of the past and future As a wartime between but distinct from those of the First World War and the Cold War Second World wartime involves an anxiety that is both repetition and imaginary both a dread of past violence unleashed anew and that of a future violence still ungraspable Identifying a constellation of temporalities and affects under three tropes time capsules time zones and ruins this volume contends that Second World wartime is a pivotal moment when wartime surpassed the boundaries of a specific state of emergency becoming first routine and then open ended It offers a synoptic wide ranging look at writers on the home front including Henry Green Elizabeth Bowen Virginia Woolf and Rose Macaulay through a variety of genres such as life writing the novel and the short story It also considers an array of cultural and archival material from photographers such as Cecil Beaton filmmakers such as Charles Crichton and artists such as John Minton It shows how figures harnessed or exploited their media's temporal properties to formally register the distinctiveness of this wartime through a complex feedback between anticipation and retrospection oftentimes fashioning the war as a memory even while it was taking place While offering a strong foundation for new readers of the mid century the book's overall theoretical focus on chronophobia will be an important intervention for those already working in the field
