Saving The Planet Without Cost:

America: Course Correction Janice Van Cleve, 2011-06-08 No matter how you look at it the United States is in trouble Endless foreign wars staggering national debt disintegrating social safety net illegal immigration drugs corporate crimes outsourcing and on and on Whether you are conservative or liberal whether you are a tea bagger or an intellectual it is clear if things dont change America as we know it will fail What would you do about it if you had supreme power What if you were dictator of the United States What would you fix How would you fix it Most important how would you leave so that the country could return to a constitutionally elected government This is the fictional record of a dictator who tried to fix America Some consider her a savior Others consider her a monster How did she do You be the judge Institutional

Inbreeding Part 1: Judiciary: The Mad Collegium Experiment Rahul Rogha, 2024-01-03 The Country of Anantra is a dysfunctional democracy and is in its Phase Four Section Four timeline Here The Judiciary is currently undertaking its final steps towards imposing Kritarchy The Ruling Dispensation however wishes to consolidate power to go for an inter galactic war the opposition wishes the country to be Partitioned once again and the bureaucracy wishes to sit this one out Who ll win

The Ecology of Learning John Blewitt, 2010-09-23 Your house is flooded by unseasonal heavy rain What do you learn from this experience Do you shrug your shoulders and call your insurer Or do you choose to learn about climate change switch to renewable energy and lobby politicians In this insightful book John Blewitt explores the possibilities for developing a sustainable society through lifelong learning that is learning that happens in everyday environments and activities as diverse as shopping community edutainment information and communication technology the internet broadcasting people s experience of place and space green building social networks and consumer culture Drawing on a range of sociological anthropological and educational studies as well as new research The Ecology of Learning is ideal for educators teachers corporate trainers and consultants working to integrate environmental education sustainability and innovation in non traditional learning situations The coverage is extensive with an accessible but informed engagement with both theory and practice and a wide range of examples Throughout the voices stories and experiences of many people are used to illustrate the ways people may reshape our understanding of learning and sustainability

Finding Lost Marbles Peggy Onofry Boydl, 2013-05-02 It was a time of honored traditions and tight knit communities an era where neighborhood schools thrived and children played simple games in the fresh outdoors Finding Lost Marbles Remembering the 50s in River City is a whimsical look back at what once was before technological gadgetry wired our youth and a reflective consideration of how we can reach back and resurrect some of the values that made the Fifties so fabulous Artificial Intelligence and the Future of Work: Humans in Control Ekkehard Ernst, Janine Berg, Phoebe V. Moore, 2024-10-01 Artificial Intelligence AI is rapidly advancing in areas such as pattern detection classification and prediction which were long thought to be the exclusive realm of humans These developments are triggering excitement about the potential of AI but are also raising concerns about possible risks The versatility of AI and its speed of development have led to a wide range of applications both in personal and professional environments The most dramatic effects are however in the world of work AI is impacting job loss and employability and causing a transformation of tasks in a range of occupations and sectors It is also affecting other aspects of the labor market such as recruitment performance monitoring and dismissal As such the development and implementation of AI are raising concerns about the future of work both in terms of its mere existence and quality with critical implications for the social fabric as well as future development prospects Low-cost/no-cost Residential
