

20 Ways to Say Goodbye

See you later, alligator!
After while, crocodile!
In an hour, sunflower!
Maybe two, kangaroo!
Gotta go, buffalo!
Adios, hippos!
Chow Chow, brown cow!
See you soon, baboon!
Where to, cockatoo!
Better swish, jellyfish
Chop Chop, lollipop!
Gotta run, skeleton!
Bye-Bye, butterfly!
Better shake, rattlesnake!
Give a hug, ladybug!
Hit the road, toad!
Maybe soon, racoon!
Out the door, dinosaur!
Peace, geese!
High five, beehive!

Saying Goodbye Activity:

Help Me Say Goodbye Janis Silverman, 2023-09-12 An art therapy and activity book for children coping with death Sensitive exercises address all the questions children may have during this emotional and troubling crisis Children are encouraged to express in pictures what they are often incapable of expressing in words Saying Goodbye Activity Book Jim Boulden, 1992 Ollie the Octopus Loss and Bereavement Activity Book Karen Treisman, 2021-06-17 In a magical underwater forest lived a colourful and loveable Octopus called Ollie who loved swimming with his friends and spending time with his mum and dad Orla and Orson the Octopuses Until one day Orla started to get very sick The doctors did everything they could to help her but very sadly Orla died Ollie had so many thoughts and feelings spinning around in his head and his heart was hurting This activity book has been developed by expert child Psychologist and bestselling author Dr Karen Treisman The first part of the book is a colourful illustrated therapeutic story about Ollie the Octopus with a focus on Ollie making sense of and processing the loss of his mum Orla This is followed by a wealth of creative activities and colourful photocopiable worksheets for children and the people supporting them to explore aspects of loss grief death and bereavement and how to find ways to understand and cope with them The final section of the book is full of advice and practical strategies for parents carers and professionals on how to help children aged 5 10 to begin to understand the complex and multi layered feelings surrounding loss and bereavement and what they can do to help navigate them through their grief journey This activity book is complemented by a standalone picture book of Ollie s story also available from Jessica Kingsley Publishers Ollie the Octopus ISBN 9781839970238 It is also complemented by a host of bestselling publications and card sets all created by Dr Treisman search on Therapeutic Treasures Collection to discover them all 50 Activities for Developing Leaders Lois Borland Hart, Hart Lois, 1994 This unique volume offers ready to use proven activities to introduce and develop key skills in leadership training Each activity includes clear objectives detailed instructions on how to run the activity and reproducible participant materials Primary Source Fluency Activities: Early America Jennifer Prior, 2004-10-30 From speeches to poems and letters including The Wedding of Pocahontas and an excerpt from The Federalist Papers this book provides primary sources and activities to help teach important fluency strategies While discovering historical people and events from the early American period students make content area connections develop fluent and meaningful oral reading and develop vocabulary and word decoding skills Included with each text is a history connection a vocabulary connection and extension ideas 192pp Preparing Your Children for Goodbye Lori A. Hedderman, 2011-02-15 Preparing Your Children For Goodbye is a supportive guidebook for parents who are terminally ill This book is divided into three parts End of life issues to consider How children cope with death A Life Review workbook The book will help you plan for your own end of life care prepare your children for your death and record memories of your life The book includes a Bibliography and a list of Places to Turn To for Help Your most important role as a parent is raising your child All along you are attempting to impart into them your values as well as teach them the skills that they will need to be successful as they grow into adulthood No parent expects to leave a child to journey through life without his or her direct guidance As that day approaches and you begin to accept that you will not have the time that you thought you would the pressure mounts to prepare your child for the future The process of looking back over your life and thinking about what has mattered most to you is a natural part of facing death There is a formal discipline called Life Review in which people are encouraged to discuss and write down aspects of their past This Life Review workbook is specifically designed for use by parents of children and teenagers It includes questions to help you consider issues relating to your children as well as more general questions that will trigger memories about other parts of your life This Life Review process can be used by anyone who is interested in thinking about their own past even if they do not have children You can use the workbook on your own or with someone else It s a nice activity for two people to do together using a conversational approach An adult child could use the conversational method with an elderly parent It can be an enjoyable way to reminisce about the past and capture memories This type of conversational approach can be helpful as a tool to use with older people who are having memory problems The workbook can be used in hospice settings by hospice volunteers to use with patients who want to reflect on their lives If someone is too sick to take on a major writing project the volunteer can ask questions from the workbook to help the person recall anything that they want to have remembered A volunteer could also work with family members to explain life review ideas and introduce the workbook as something they can use on their own Any parent who wants to record family history can also use this book Perhaps you have a high risk profession in an area such as law enforcement firefighting or serve in the military and are concerned about the future Who hasn t thought What if Experiential Activities for Intercultural Learning H. Ned Seelye,1995-12-01 The need for new approaches methods and techniques in cross cultural training and intercultural education are virtually insatiable especially for experiential activities The emphasis in this book is on activities that foster the development of intercultural awareness and cross cultural sensitivity helping learners understand some of the principal dimensions of intercultural communication cross cultural human relations and cultural diversity The selections include simulations case studies role plays critical incidents and individual and group exercises A number address relatively complex workplace issues others focus on intercultural dynamics in educational contexts Some are printed here for the first time others are culled from less accessible sources They range from basic introductory activities to those that facilitate the exploration of intercultural issues in significant depth In an introductory essay Sheila Ramsey an experienced scholar and trainer examines the nature of intercultural training and lays out a conceptual framework for assessing its effectiveness The rest of the book is made up of activities organized around six facets of intercultural contact cultural differences for beginners understanding oneself as a cultural person the intercultural perspective working across cultures cross cultural foul ups and returning home Each section opens with an introduction followed by activities Each activity includes at a minimum objectives audience materials required setting time required and procedure for facilitation Many of the activities include handouts or illustrations This book will be especially valuable for trainers and educators who want to further ground their work in a solid theoretical base and at the same time augment their resources to expand their repertoire
