Sayings Of The Desert Fathers:

The Desert Fathers Benedicta Ward, 2003-03-27 The Desert Fathers were the first Christian monks living in solitude in the deserts of Egypt Palestine and Syria In contrast to the formalised and official theology of the founding fathers of the church the Desert Fathers were ordinary Christians who chose to renounce the world and live lives of celibacy fasting vigil prayer and poverty in direct and simple response to the gospel Their sayings were first recorded in the 4th century and consist of spiritual advice anecdotes and parables The Desert Fathers teachings and lives have inspired poetry opera and art as well as providing spiritual nourishment and a template for monastic life Desert Wisdom ,1982-01-01 SMRH2 has only a photocopy of the introduction written by Henri J M Nouwen

The Sayings of the Desert Fathers ,1975-02-01 Give me a word Father visitors to early desert monks asked The responses of these pioneer ascetics were remembered and in the fourth century written down in Coptic Syriac Greek and later Latin Their Sayings were collected in this case in the alphabetical order of the monks and nuns who uttered them and read by generations of Christians as life giving words that would help readers along the path to salvation

The Anonymous Sayings of the Desert Fathers ,2013-05-02 The Tales and Sayings of the Desert Fathers Apophthegmata Patrum are a key source of evidence for the practice and theory respectively of eremitic monasticism a significant phenomenon within the early history of Christianity The publication of this book finally ensures the availability of all three major collections which constitute the work edited and translated into English Richer in Tales than the Alphabetic collection to which this is an appendix both to be dated c AD 500 the Anonymous collection presented in this volume furnishes almost as much material for the study of the late antique world from which the monk sought to escape as it does for the monastic endeavour itself More material continued to be added well into the seventh century and so the spread and gradual evolution of monasticism are illustrated here over a period of about two and a half centuries

Desert Wisdom Yushi Nomura, 1984-03-01 Sketches accompany a collection of sayings and parables by the Christian hermits of fourth and fifth century Egypt

The World of the Desert Fathers The Desert Fathers, 2020-08-03 Fairacres Publications 95 These stories and sayings of the Desert Fathers in a translation by Columba Stewart give insights into a tradition where words have a resonance beyond their surface meaning They are intended to lead the reader further along the way of Christ Columba Stewart provides an introduction to each section to help us understand the world of the early monks

The Wisdom of the Desert Thomas Merton, 2012-09-30 The Wisdom of the Desert was one of Thomas Merton s favorites among his own books surely because he had hoped to spend his last years as a hermit The personal tones of the translations the blend of reverence and humor so characteristic of him show how deeply Merton identified with the legendary authors of these sayings and parables the fourth century Christian Fathers who sought solitude and contemplation in the deserts of the Near East The hermits of Scete who turned their backs on a corrupt society remarkably like our own had much in common with the Zen masters of China and Japan and Father Merton made his selection from them with an eye to the kind of impact languages and are presented alongside an Introduction and brief notes to the English reader who wishes to know more of those men and some women who rejected the world and went to live in the desert regions of Egypt and elsewhere in the fourth to seventh centuries Give Me a Word ,2014 The Desert Christian ,1980 The Book of the Elders ,2012-05-01 In the early part of the fourth century a few Christians mostly men and some women began to withdraw from the world to retreat into the desert there to practice their new religion more seriously The person who aspired to renounce the world first had to find an elder a person who would accept him as a disciple and apprentice To his elder whom he would address as abba father the neophyte owed complete obedience from his abba he would receive provisions as it were for the road to virtue In addition to the abba s own example of living there was the verbal teaching of the elders in sayings and tales setting out the theory and practice of the eremitic life In due course these sayings or apophthegmata were written down and later collected and codified The earliest attempts to codify tales and sayings are now lost As the collection grew they were first organized alphabetically according to the name of the abba who spoke them in a major collection known as the Apophthegmata Patrum Alphabetica A supplementary collection the Anonymous Apophthegmata followed Later both collections were combined and arranged systematically rather than alphabetically This collection was created sometime between 500 and 575 and later went through a couple of major revisions the second of which appeared sometime before 970 This second revision was published in an excellent new critical edition with a French translation in 1993 Now in The Book of the Elders John Wortley offers an English translation of this collection based entirely on the Greek of that text The sayings of the Desert Fathers ,1975 The Wisdom of the Desert Thomas Merton,1974 The wisdom of the desert : sayings from the desert fathers of the fourth century Thomas Merton (1915-1968 trans),1960 The Wisdom of the Desert Thomas Merton,1979 The Wisdom of the Desert ,2002
