The New Typography in Scandinavia Trond Klevgaard, 2020-10-15 This is the first monograph on Scandinavia s New Typography It provides a detailed account of the movement s lifespan in the region from the 1920s up until the 1940s when it was largely incorporated into mainstream practice The book begins by tracing how the New Typography from its origins in the central and eastern European avant garde arrived in Scandinavia It considers the movement s transformative impact on printing detailing the cultural and technological reasons why its ability to act as a modernising force varied between different professional groups The last two chapters look at how New Typography related to Scandinavian society more widely by looking at its ties to functionalism and social democracy paving the way for a discussion of the reciprocal relationship between the culture of practitioners and the cultural work performed through their practice Based on archival research undertaken at a number of Scandinavian institutions the book brings a wealth of previously unpublished visual material to light and provides a fresh perspective on a movement of central and enduring importance to graphic design history and practice

Scandinavian Museums and Cultural Diversity Katherine J. Goodnow, Haci Akman, 2008-09 Museums across the world are facing the task of capturing reflecting and representing the notion of complex identities personal religious and ethnic Narratives of national allegiances are being slowly replaced and supplemented by indigenous and minority voices providing a more complex understanding of diversity especially where intangible heritage is called on as a witness The approach taken by Scandinavian museums in response to this challenge highlights the hybrid forms of cultural diversity and how they interrelate and work together By bringing together debates and discussions of identity and diversity this volume offers a particular insight into a broad geographic region and its diverse people from the Sami and the limit to new migrants It also presents a set of historical views on the formation of national museums and their contested perceptions of identity Whilst developing new arguments and furthering an ongoing debate it offers museum curators possible ways forward
