Historical Dictionary of Medieval Christian Nubia Richard A. Lobban Jr., 2020-10-20 Medieval Christian Nubia is often a neglected period of medieval African history Because meaning is determined largely by context this work traces the Greco Roman Meroitic and Jewish precursors The regional historical and theological schisms within Christianity are also a highlight The dynamics of the three Nubian kingdoms of Nobatia Mukurra and Alwa are the centerpiece of this book that covers mural arts architecture and the names of the leading kings and bishops Another strength of the book is the analysis of the 700 year baqt peace treaty between Christian Nubia and Islamic Egypt this is considered to be the longest lasting treaty in diplomatic history The complex transition from Christianity to Islam in the 14th century is analyzed in great personal political and military detail Historical Dictionary of Medieval Christian Nubia contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 200 cross referenced entries on politics economy foreign relations religion and culture of the medieval Nubians This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Medieval Christian Nubia

Viral Pandemics

Rae-Ellen Kavey, Allison Kavey, 2024-10-01 This new edition of Viral Pandemics illuminates how the increasing emergence of novel viruses has combined with intensifying global interconnectedness to create an escalating spiral of viral disease. It includes an introduction to the key characteristics of viral pathogens that make them so dangerous followed by a comprehensive survey of epidemic viral disease from 1900 to the present. Now featuring new chapters on COVID 19 and mpox, the book uses an historical narrative to follow the path of each virus from its original detection to its emergence as an explosive pandemic. This allows readers to appreciate the biologic potential of the virus, the dynamics of epidemic disease spread, and the contemporaneous abilities of medicine and science to contend with the pathogen. In parallel, the book discusses those elements of connectedness that enable a localized disease outbreak to become a global pandemic, allowing readers to appreciate the increasingly critical role that human activity plays in global disease. In the last two chapters, the authors take a different approach. A Look Back critically evaluates the response to COVID 19 against the history of the emergence of public health in response to several other modern global pandemics and identifies some lessons we can still learn to improve our response to future pandemics. A Way Forward integrates the biologic and environmental factors that emerged as critical in the analysis of all the pandemics in the book and then uses this composite picture to propose ways to interrupt the escalating cycle of viral pandemic disease. Written in a straightforward and accessible style, this book is ideal reading for students of public health and its history, the history of medicine and medical anthropology, as well as general readers keen to understand how viral pandemics have shaped and continue to shape millions of lives.

Scars of the Spirit Geoffrey H. Hartman, 2002. A powerful meditation on authenticity and contemporary life by one of our most renowned literary critics.

Deleuzian Fabulation and the Scars of History Ronald Bogue, 2010-07-05. The concept of fabulation makes a late appearance in Deleuze's career and in only limited detail, but by tracing its connections to other concepts and situating them within Deleuze's general aesthetics, Ronald Bogue develops a theory of fabulation which he proposes as the guiding principle of a Deleuzian approach to literary narrative. Fabulation, he argues, entails becoming other, experimenting on the real, legending and inventing a people to come, as well as an understanding of time informed by Deleuze's Chronos/Aion distinction and his theory of the three passive syntheses of time. In close readings of contemporary novels by Zakes Mda, Arundhati Roy, Roberto Bolaño, Assia Djebar, and Richard Flanagan, he demonstrates the usefulness of fabulation as a critical tool while exploring the problematic relationship between history and story telling, which all five novelists adopt as a central thematic concern. This is an original and exciting project by a highly respected specialist in the field.
