Scent Of Eden:

The World Without Us Alan Weisman, 2008-08-05 A penetrating take on how our planet would respond without the relentless pressure of the human presence The Scent of Eden Cynthia Powell, 1998 Showered and shaved he was a sight to make a southern girl swoon Jack Rafferty hoped his really bad day wouldn't get any worse but when Eden Wellbourne stepped onto his dilapidated houseboat and asked for help he saw trouble in every curve of her elegant body Eden didn't want to hire the brawny investigator to find her fiancé but her sister had insisted When a break in convinced Eden her life was in danger Jack offered his protection but would sharing very close quarters with a sexy rogue be even more perilous In a fast paced adventure that's equal parts romp and romance Cynthia Powell demonstrates the delicious power of unlikely attraction He'd promised himself no perfumed princess would ever capture his tough guy's heart but could he blame her secret love potion for persuading him to break all the rules Scent and Subversion Barbara Herman, 2013-11-05 An intriguing look at vintage perfume's powerful past including reviews of more than 300 scents with stunning period advertisements throughout Mystical Aromatherapy Avraham Sand, 2012-03-16 Practical Applications of Aromatherapy Valuable tips on the most effective and enjoyable use of aromatic medicine Detailed guidelines for using the sense of smell to choose the correct Aromatherapy oils and formulations Essential Oil formulation secrets for Massage Bath Inhalation and Perfume Aromatics as a Divine gift of healing and a sacred invitation to return to Paradise Masking and Unmasking Ourselves Dr. Norman J. Cohen, 2012-08-14 Our clothes conceal our naked bodies but what do they reveal about our souls Clothes assume a primary importance as a vehicle that suggests character provides insights into a person's identity and even governs it But the problem is that if Oscar Wilde is correct that if you give a man a mask he will tell you the truth then what exactly conveys the truth Is it the person him or herself or is it the mask the clothing that he or she wears that reveals deeper images of self from the Introduction In this highly engaging look at clothing and identity in the Bible renowned teacher and scholar Norman Cohen presents ten Bible stories that involve clothing in an essential way as a means of learning about the text its characters and their interactions But he also shows us how these stories help us confront our own life dramas our own stories ourselves In doing so he once again presents the Bible as a mirror reflecting back to us our own personalities ambivalences struggles and potential for growth By helping us uncover the garments of the Bible Cohen shows us how to shed our own layers of insulation to reveal our authentic selves Passionate Intellect Michael Kirkham, 1999-01-01 This critical study looks at the first four decades of Charles Tomlinson's poetic career and is the only published full scale exclusive treatment of his poetry Tomlinson is a major British poet whose work has received more recognition in North America and continental Europe than it has in his own country where still in some quarters its character is misunderstood and therefore misjudged The purpose of Kirkham's study is to increase understanding and appreciation of the exceptional achievement of Tomlinson's poetry emphasizing both the startling originality of his vision a unified vision of a natural human world and the subtlety of his poetic art The study is a reading of the poems which aims to show what they yield to close scrutiny and to remove misconceptions Known for its analytical rendering of sense impressions and its avoidance of the personal pronoun the objectivism of Tomlinson s poetry is not an exercise in asceticism but a means of enlarging the circumference of the perceiving self an expansion of self which is not at the same time an inflation of the self regarding ego Its theme is not objects as such but relations the relation of the perceiving self to the other of the human to the non human world Its reputation for cool detachment is based on a misreading it is a poetry of energy and excitement which combines self restraint with passionate conviction Philomelodies Philomelodies,1904 The Recovery of Breath John C. Seward,2025-07-02 Seward The Recovery of Breath 29 Have you ever felt out of breath You are not alone I m amazed that God designed the human body with at least eight different blood types but made sure that we all breathe the same air There is an important reason behind this creation standard Lately the church has lost her breath We need God to breathe one more time on humanity The Recovery of Breath explains why this is so important to all mankind Scents and Sensibility Catherine Maxwell,2017-10-20 This lively accessible book is the first to explore Victorian literature through scent and perfume presenting an extensive range of well known and unfamiliar texts in intriguing and imaginative new ways that make us re think literature s relation with the senses Concentrating on aesthetic and decadent authors Scents and Sensibility introduces a rich selection of poems essays and fiction exploring these texts with reference to both the little known cultural history of perfume use and the appreciation of natural fragrance in Victorian Britain It shows how scent and perfume are used to convey not merely moods and atmospheres but the nuances of the aesthete or decadent s carefully cultivated identity personality or sensibility A key theme is the emergence of the olfactif the cultivated individual with a refined sense of smell influentially represented by the poet and critic Algernon Charles Swinburne who is emulated by a host of canonical and less well known aesthetic and decadent successors such as Walter Pater Edmund Gosse John Addington Symonds Lafcadio Hearn Michael Field Oscar Wilde Arthur Symons Mark Andr Raffalovich Theodore Wratislaw and A Mary F Robinson This book explores how scent and perfume pervade the work of these authors in many different ways signifying such diverse things as style atmosphere influence sexuality sensibility spirituality refinement individuality the expression of love and poetic creativity and the aura of personality dandyism modernity and memory A coda explores the contrasting twentieth century responses of Virginia Woolf and Compton Mackenzie to the scent of Victorian literature Sacred Scents in Early Christianity and Islam Mary Thurlkill,2016-07-26 Medieval scholars and cultural historians have recently turned their attention to the question of smells and what olfactory sensations reveal about society in general and holiness in particular Sacred Scents in Early Christianity and Islam contributes to that conversation explaining how early Christians and Muslims linked the sweet smell of sanctity with ideals of the body and sexuality created boundaries and sacred space and imagined their emerging communal identity Most importantly scent itself transgressive and difficult to control signaled transition and transformation between categories of meaning Christian and Islamic authors distinguished their own fragrant ethical and theological ideals against the stench of oppositional heresy and moral depravity Orthodox Christians ridiculed their stinking Arian neighbors and Muslims denounced the reeking corruption of Umayyad and Abbasid decadence Through the mouths of saints and prophets patriarchal authors labeled perfumed women as existential threats to vulnerable men and consigned them to enclosed private space for their protection as well as society's At the same time theologians praised both men and women who purified and transformed their bodies into aromatic offerings to God Both Christian and Muslim pilgrims venerated sainted men and women with perfumed offerings at tombstones indeed Christians and Muslims often worshipped together honoring common heroes such as Abraham Moses and Jonah Sacred Scents begins by surveying aroma's quotidian functions in Roman and pre Islamic cultural milieus within homes temples poetry kitchens and medicines Existing scholarship tends to frame scent as something available only to the wealthy or elite however perfumes spices and incense wafted through the lives of most early Christians and Muslims It ends by examining both traditions views of Paradise identified as the archetypal Garden and source of all perfumes and sweet smells Both Christian and Islamic texts explain Adam and Eve's profound grief at losing access to these heavenly aromas and celebrate God's mercy in allowing earthly remembrances Sacred scent thus prompts humanity's grief for what was lost and the yearning for paradisiacal transformation still to come
