Neighbours, Distrust, and the State Marc Brodie, 2022 Neighbours Distrust and the State shows that in the past just like now many poor people wanted something done by government in their communities examining how they thought about such things as the role of the police compulsory schooling housing estates and other state provisions

Governing Gifts Erica Caple James, 2019-04-15 This collection investigates the intersections between faith based charity and secular statecraft The contributors trace the connections among piety philanthropy policy and policing Rather than attempt to delimit what constitutes so called faith based aid and institutions or to reify the concept of the state they seek to understand how faith and organized religious charity can be mobilized at times on behalf of the state to govern populations and their practices In exploring the relationship between faith based charity and the state this volume contributes to discussions of the boundaries between public and private realms and to studies on the resurgence of religion in politics and public policy The contributors demonstrate how the borders between faith based and secular domains of governance cannot be clearly defined Ultimately the book aims to expand the parameters of what has typically been a US centric discussion of faith based interventions as it explores the concepts of faith charity security and governance within a global perspective

Law and Social Policy in the Global South Ulrike Davy, Albert H.Y. Chen, 2022-12-13 The book is an in depth study of the origins and the trajectories of the law governing social policies in Brazil China India and South Africa four middle income countries in the global South with a history in social policy making that starts in the 1920s The policies of these countries affect almost half of the world s population The book takes the legal framework of the policies as a starting point but the main interest lies behind the letter of the law What were the objectives and goals of social policy over the course of the last 100 years What were the ideas ideologies and values pursued by relevant actors The book comprises four country studies and a comparative study The country studies concentrate on the political and social context of social policy making in Brazil China India and South Africa as well as on the ideas ideologies and values underpinning the constitution statutory laws and case law that frame and shape social policy at the national level The country studies are complemented by a comparative study exploring and describing the commonalities and differences in the ideational approaches to social policies across the four countries nationally and in the formative decades internationally The comparative study also identifies the characteristics that make Brazilian Chinese Indian and South African social policies distinct from European social policies With its emphasis on law and drawing on legal scholarship the book adds a new dimension to the existing accounts on welfare state building which so far are dominated by European narratives and by scholars with a background in sociology political science and development studies This book is relevant to specialists and peers and will be invaluable to those individuals interested in the fields of comparative and international social security law human rights law comparative constitutional law constitutional history law and development studies comparative social policies global social policies social work and welfare state theory The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
