author of the best selling Schmecks cookbooks an award winning journalist for magazines such as Maclean's and a creative non fiction mentor Edna Staebler was a writer of a different sort Staebler began serious diary writing at the age of sixteen and continued to write for over eighty years Must Write Edna Staebler's Diaries draws from these diaries selections that map Staebler's construction of herself as a writer and documents her frustrations and struggles along with her desire to express herself in writing She felt she must write that not to write was a denial of life while at the same time she doubted the value of her scribbles Spanning much of the twentieth century each decade is introduced by an overview of key events in the author's life during that period the diaries vividly illuminate both her intensely personal experiences and her broader social world The volume also presents four key examples of Staebler's public writing her first published magazine article her first award winning publication the opening chapter of her book Cape Breton Harbour and her lively account of the Great Cookie War Must Write Edna Staebler's Diaries portrays an ordinary woman's struggle to write in the context of her lived experience All my life I have talked about writing and kept scribbling in my notebook as if that makes me a writer wrote Staebler in 1986 This volume argues that the very act of writing the diaries with all their contradictory accounts of writerly ambition success and conflict made Staebler the writer she yearned to be Dish Marion Kane, 2005 A compilation of food writer Marion Kane's memories newspaper columns and 80 recipes Kane has been a food editor and writer at major newspapers for almost twenty years Canadian Books in Print.
