Each chapter provides insight into an aspect of current research with detailed case studies coming from as far afield as Hong Kong and Canada. In the context of the ever increasing burden of responsibility placed on education management to safeguard and enhance the quality of education they provide school leadership is now a core concern of policy makers. In addition most countries are undertaking fundamental education reforms that will have a major influence on the nature of school leadership. Offering the most up to date research on this central issue this book will both inform and shape the debate.

Managing Finance, Resources and Stakeholders in Education Lesley Anderson, Ann R J Briggs, Neil Burton, 2001-10-25 The text is challenging and stimulating and structured to provide the reader with an accessible synopsis of the range of current trends and solutions in the area of educational financial management being applied in the UK and the global context. Improving Schools Managing Finance Resources and Stakeholders in Education provides readers with knowledge and understanding of the theory and practice of managing finance resources and stakeholders in schools and colleges. Written specifically for those studying for an academic qualification at masters level in educational management it provides self study material and links to other key texts in the field. The authors deal with the links between finance resources and stakeholders in the context of school and college self management. Examples are drawn from international settings as well as from the United Kingdom. Building on an examination of theoretical perspectives practical considerations and applications are examined in a format which encourages the reader to explore the context of their own educational institution.
