Environmental Engineering and Health Sciences Jose A. Raynal,2000 Gender and Environmental Education: Feminist and Other(ed) Perspectives Annette Gough,2024-06-03 This timely book provides a starting point for critical analysis and discourse about the status of gendered perspectives in environmental education research Through bringing together selected writings of Annette Gough it documents the evolving discussions of gender in environmental education research since the mid 1990s from its origins in putting women on the agenda through to women s relationships with nature and ecofeminism as well as writings that engage with queer theory intersectionality assemblages new materialisms posthumanism and the more than human The book is both a collection of Annette Gough and her collaborators writings around these themes and her reflections on the transitions that have occurred in the field of environmental education related to gender since the late 1980s as well as her deliberations on future directions An important new addition to the World Library of Educationalists this book foregrounds women their environmental perspectives and feminist and other gendered research which have been marginalised for too long in environmental education Conversations About The Environment

Howard Burton, 2021-05-24 Conversations About History Volume 2 includes the following 5 carefully edited Ideas Roadshow Conversations featuring leading historians This collection includes a detailed preface highlighting the connections between the different books Each book is broken into chapters with a detailed introduction and questions for discussion at the end of each chapter

- 1 Constitutional Investigations A Conversation with Linda Colley the Shelby M C Davis 1958 Professor of History at Princeton University Linda Colley is a leading expert on British imperial and global history since 1700 After inspiring insights about Linda Colley s teachers and professors who had a strong impact on her future career as a historian this wide ranging conversation provides a detailed examination of the global history and present state of constitutions and their impact
- 2 The Passionate Historian A Conversation with John Elliott Professor of Modern History at University of Oxford This extensive conversation provides behind the scenes insights into how an undergraduate encounter with a 17th century painting of The Count Duke Olivares led John Elliott on a lifelong odyssey to study the history of Spain Europe and the Americas in the early modern period to become one of the greatest Spanish historians of our age
- 3 The Derveni Papyrus A Conversation with Richard Janko Gerald F Else Distinguished University Professor of Classical Studies at the University of Michigan This comprehensive conversation covers Richard Janko s research on the Derveni Papyrus Europe s oldest surviving manuscript from the 4th century BCE and the most important text relating to early Greek literature science religion and philosophy to have come to light since the Renaissance
- 4 Byzantium Beyond the Cliché A Conversation between Howard Burton and Maria Mavroudi Professor of History at UC Berkeley Maria Mavroudi specializes in the study of the Byzantine Empire and this wide ranging conversation explores her extensive research on the Byzantine Empire and how it has repeatedly been undervalued by historians despite its having been a military and cultural powerhouse for more than a millennium
- 5 Apocalypse Then The First Crusade A Conversation with Jay Rubenstein Professor of History and Director of the Center for the Premodern World at the University of Southern California This thought provoking book provides us with fascinating expert insights into medieval society and how the First Crusade happened What could have suddenly caused tens of thousands of knights commoners and even nuns at the end of the 11th century to leave their normal lives behind and trek thousands of miles across hostile territory in an unprecedented vicious and bloody quest to wrest Jerusalem from its occupying powers Howard Burton is the founder and host of all Ideas Roadshow Conversations and was the Founding Executive Director of Perimeter Institute for Theoretical Physics He holds a PhD in theoretical physics and an MA in philosophy

Understanding Your Social Agency Armand Lauffer, 2011 Understanding Your Nonprofit Agency written by internationally renowned scholar Armand Lauffer will fill the growing need for the distinction between corporate business operations and nonprofit operations The book will focus on how nonprofit agencies operate and not how they are managed It has been assumed that both entities function similarly Currently this assumption is increasingly seen as groundless nonprofit and profit driven organizations have different goals and function differently from each other This text addresses the current trend to differentiate how nonprofits are distinct

Research in Education, 1974

Soils and Environmental Quality
Gary M. Pierzynski, George F. Vance, J. Thomas Sims, 2005-05-02 A perpetual bestseller this third edition explores environmental quality from the perspective of soil science The coverage ranges from the theoretical to the practical with an abundance of examples such as an exploration of allowable pesticide concentrations in drinking water and an inquiry into soil contamination from the trace elements in organic by products It also explores the use of soil carbon sequestration as a remedy for global climate change and the effects of acid precipitation on forestation Case studies with political economic and legal implications illustrate the human side of environmental problems Also covered is the use or misuse of the Scientific Method and the potential for factual bias The three authors all teaching professors distinguished in soil science have updated this student favorite to include a greater number of even more relevant topics
