Science Update 1986 A Modern Science Anthology For The Family:

Van Nostrand's Scientific Encyclopedia Douglas M. Considine, Glenn D. Considine, 2013-12-11 Advancements in science and engineering have occurred at a surprisingly rapid pace since the release of the seventh edition of this encyclopedia Large portions of the reference have required comprehensive rewriting and new illustrations Scores of new topics have been included to create this thoroughly updated eighth edition The appearance of this new edition in 1994 marks the continuation of a tradition commenced well over a half century ago in 1938 Van Nostrand's Scientific Encyclopedia First Edition was published and welcomed by educators worldwide at a time when what we know today as modern science was just getting underway The early encyclopedia was well received by students and educators alike during a critical time span when science became established as a major factor in shaping the progress and economy of individual nations and at the global level A vital need existed for a permanent science reference that could be updated periodically and made conveniently available to audiences that numbered in the millions The pioneering VNSE met these criteria and continues today as a reliable technical information source for making private and public decisions that present a backdrop of technical alternatives

Secularization and China's Modernization Zhongmin Wu, 2024-12-17 This open access book examines from the perspective of secularization Since the publication of Max Weber's Protestant Ethics and the Spirit of Capitalism how to realize modernization in developing countries has become an urgent problem to be demonstrated Secularization has becoming endogenous power for Chinese modernization procedure especially since 1978 However to understand the foundation of secularization it is inevitable to tracing back to Chinese history This approach contains critical analysis and profound insight to illuminate the essence of secularization in contemporary Chinese context The author also applies the comparative approach by comparing with Protestant ethics in many Western European countries the significance of secularization has been emphasized The widespread and intense secularization boosts China into the trend modernization that covers nearly all aspects of society This book is in need for those who intended to discern the truth of Chinese modernization It is also a key tool of reflecting modernization and development in a broader sense

Apocalyptic AI: Visions of Heaven in Robotics, Artificial Intelligence, and Virtual Reality Robert M. Geraci, 2010-02-05 Apocalyptic AI the hope that we might one day upload our minds into machines or cyberspace and live forever is a surprisingly wide spread and influential idea affecting everything from the world view of online gamers to government research funding and philosophical thought In Apocalyptic AI Robert Geraci offers the first serious account of this cyber theology and the people who promote it Drawing on interviews with roboticists and AI researchers and with devotees of the online game Second Life among others Geraci illuminates the ideas of such advocates of Apocalyptic AI as Hans Moravec and Ray Kurzweil He reveals that the rhetoric of Apocalyptic AI is strikingly similar to that of the apocalyptic traditions of Judaism and Christianity In both systems the believer is trapped in a dualistic universe and expects a resolution in which he or she will be translated to a transcendent new world and live forever in a glorified new body Equally important Geraci shows how this worldview shapes our culture Apocalyptic AI has become a powerful force in modern culture In this superb volume he shines a light on this belief system revealing what it is and how it is changing society      South Korean Social Movements Gi-Wook Shin, Paul Y Chang, 2011-06-01 This book explores the evolution of social movements in South Korea by focusing on how they have become institutionalized and diffused in the democratic period The contributors explore the transformation of Korean social movements from the democracy campaigns of the 1970s and 1980s to the rise of civil society struggles after 1987 South Korea was ruled by successive authoritarian regimes from 1948 to 1987 when the government decided to re establish direct presidential elections The book contends that the transition to a democratic government was motivated in part by the pressure from social movement groups that fought the state to bring about such democracy After the transition however the movement groups found themselves in a qualitatively different political context which in turn galvanized the evolution of the social movement sector Including an impressive array of case studies ranging from the women s movement to environmental NGOs and from cultural production to law the contributors to this book enrich our understanding of the democratization process in Korea and show that the social movement sector remains an important player in Korean politics today This book will appeal to students and scholars of Korean studies Asian politics political history and social movements      Cold War Books in the 'Other' Europe and What Came After Jiřina Šmejkalová, 2010-11-19 Drawing on analyses of the socio cultural context of East and Central Europe with a special focus on the Czech cultural dynamics of the Cold War and its aftermath this book offers a study of the making and breaking of the centrally controlled system of book production and reception It explores the social material and symbolic reproduction of the printed text in both official and alternative spheres and patterns of dissemination and reading Building on archival research statistical data media analyses and in depth interviews with the participants of the post 1989 de centralization and privatization of the book world it revisits the established notions of censorship and revolution in order to uncover people s performances that contributed to both the reproduction and erosion of the old regime      Mothers and Daughters in Arab Women's Literature Dalya Abudi, 2010-11-11 This study explores the mother daughter relationship as the most fundamental and most intimate female relationship and as the cornerstone of Arab family life Drawing on autobiographical and semifictional works by women writers from across the Arab world the study offers a first hand account of how Arab women view and experience this primary bond The author uses both early and contemporary writings of Arab women to illuminate the traditional and evolving nature of mother daughter relationships in Arab families and how these family dynamics reflect and influence modern Arab life The compelling narratives demystify the institutions of family and motherhood and show the potential of mothers and daughters to transform the patriarchal family and thus the fabric of Arab society A groundbreaking work that fills a void in cross cultural studies it is of interest to scholars and students of Middle Eastern studies women s studies and family studies
