Scratch Cherpeski:

Scratch Cherpeski Andrew Kuchrawy, Dolan Andrews, 1998-09 Scratch Cherpeski chronicles the coming of age of a 16 year old kid in one of America's colorful lower class industrial ghettos during the 1940s and early 1950s. It could be anyone's story. Every kid has to come to grips with emerging adult situations and emotions. Those born during the Great Depression and raised in broken homes by dysfunctional parents learned to expect nothing from life except what they could take without permission. They were not dissimilar to the youth of today. They worked the streets in gangs defying all authority trying to grow up on their own. The whole World was at war. Kids over there were being starved, bombed and strafed. These American kids were neglected, abused and molested but safe. Don't miss the opportunity to know Gabe Cherpeski. He shares every intimate secret, steals your heart and makes you part of his hazardous street wise world. You'll not only walk in his sneakers, you'll squirm in his jeans, sleep with his fears and feel a revival of your own youthful passions and dreams. Dolan Andrews
