A Lonely Pen Benjamin Qadir Shambala, 2020-12-22 A Lonely Pen refers to the relationship between me and the instrumentation I use to relay my thoughts and feelings to the world It also uses personification metaphor and hyperbole to illustrate the passion involved with writing itself The title describes this all perfectly and in my humble opinion is my most important piece We will see if history indeed bears me out A writer any writer of any kind has to create an audience and tell them a story The success of the writing has somewhat less to do with the skill of the writer and his techniques than it will have to do with the reception and interpretations of his audience Why does a writer write He writes because he must write He writes as easily as he speaks and as necessary as he breathes Once written they all have a life and destiny of their own beyond the writer's control yet gaining for him his immortality

Essays in Migratory Aesthetics, 2015-06-29 This volume addresses the impact of human movement on the aesthetic practices that make up the fabric of culture The essays explore the ways in which cultural activities ranging from the habitual gestures of the body to the production of specific artworks register the impact of migration from the forced transportation of slaves to the New World and of Jews to the death camps to the economic migration of peoples between the West and its erstwhile colonies from the internal and external exile of Palestinians to the free movement of cosmopolitan intellectuals Rather than focusing exclusively on art produced by those identified as migrant subjects this collection opens up the question of how aesthetics itself migrates transforming not only its own practices and traditions but also the very nature of our being in the world as subjects producing as well as produced by the cultures in which we live The transformative potential of cultures on the move is both affirmed and critiqued throughout the collection as part of an exploration of the ways in which globalisation implicates us ever more tightly in the unequal relations of production that characterise late modernity This collection brings academic scholars from a variety of disciplines into conversation with practising visual and verbal artists indeed many of the essays break down the distinction between artist and academic suggesting a dynamic interchange between critical reflection and creativity

Misplaced Love, Never Turn Back Tang CuHuLu, 2020-09-08 You said I killed the person you loved the most so what did I count for If she said that beating was a form of love then what was shaming for five years It said that when one reaches the depths of love they will naturally see flowers bloom Then when would it be Mu Xiaoyan Love Ling An Jun was not afraid of being buried Not fearing inhuman abuse He was not afraid of hopelessness either Because I only believe that one day I will love you and you will be touched
