Screen World ,2003      *Young Children in a Digital Age Lorraine Kaye,2016-06-23 Young children are born into a digital world and it is not unusual to see preschool children intuitively swiping screens and confidently pressing buttons There is much debate about the impact of the increased access to technology on young children s health and wellbeing with claims that it damages their social skills and emotional development This timely new textbook examines how developments in technology particularly mobile and touch screen technology have impacted on children s lives and how when used appropriately it can support all aspects of their development Clearly linking theory and research to everyday practice the book offers guidance on The role of technology in the early years curriculum Developing young children s understanding of safe and responsible use of technology The role of the adult within digital play activities Using technology to enhance and develop young children s creativity Technology and language acquisition Featuring a wide range of case studies and examples to show how the ideas described can be put into practice this is essential reading for all early years students and practitioners that want to know how they can harness technology in a meaningful way to support young children s learning and development

Designing for Small Screens Studio 7.5,2005-10 The design of interactive applications or presentations on small screens can be challenging for the designer Not all design concepts that are valid on larger screens can be implemented on the small screen A multitude of different devices with dissimilar technical specifications fall under the category of small screen interfaces Devices in this category differ in size and type of their display in the nature of their physical interaction and in their performance This book equips the student or practitioner with the appropriate tools with which to develop functional concepts and realise good designs for small screens In order to tackle and visualise complex design issues each of the ten chapters in this book is structured in three segments The first section is dedicated to theoretical reflection and an overview of the fundamental design options that relate to the specific issue in question The second section offers examples of good working practice and application of the theory described and the final section offers useful background information such as an explanation of the technical terms that will help you to make informed design decisions Selling points shows professional designers and students how to develop functional concepts and good design for the small screen and pertinent subject given advancing technology in mobile phones palm top computers and other small screen devices Readership both professional designers and students alike Authors Professor Carola Zwick studied at the University of Arts Berlin where she gained an MA in Industrial Design In 1993 she joined the teaching body at the University of Arts Berlin as an Assistant Professor and together with Burkhard Schmitz she initiated the media group ID 5 within the design course Carola Zwick has been teaching interface design at the University of Applied Sciences Magdeburg Stendal since 1998 Professor Burkhard Schmitz studied at the University of Arts in Berlin where he too gained an MA in Industrial Design In 1989 he became Professor for Media Design at the University of Applied Sciences Schwabisch Gmund In 1993 he returned once more to the University of Arts Berlin where he has taught Interactive Systems since Dipl Designer Kerstin Kuhl studied at the University of Applied Sciences Dessau where she gained a diploma in Graphic Design Theatre World Volume 58 - 2001-2002 John Willis, 2004-11-01 Now in its 58th year Theatre World is the complete record of the Broadway and Off Broadway season touring companies and professional regional companies throughout the United States Theatre World 2006-2007 - The Most Complete Record of the American Theatre John Willis, Ben Hodges, 2009-06-01 Theatre World Applause Theatre Cinema Books is pleased to make this venerable continuing series complete by publishing Theatre World Volume 63 Theatre World remains the authoritative pictorial and statistical record of the season on Broadway Off Broadway Off Off Broadway and for regional theatre companies Volume 63 features Duncan Sheik and Steven Sater's Tony Award winning Best Musical Spring Awakening which also earned a Theatre World Award for actor Jonathan Groff Tom Stoppard's The Coast of Utopia captured the Best Play Tony Award as well as Tonys for featured actors Billy Crudup and Jennifer Ehle Frasier star David Hyde Pierce returned to his theatre roots to capture a Tony for Kander and Ebb's Curtains and other highlights of the season include the Off Broadway musical In the Heights as well as Passing Strange which debuted at the Berkeley Repertory Theatre Both have since transferred to Broadway and become critical and popular hits As always Theatre World's outstanding features include An expanded section of professional regional productions from across the U S The longest running shows on and Off Broadway Full coverage of the Theatre World Awards for Broadway and Off Broadway debuts Expanded obituaries and a comprehensive index Pola Negri Mariusz Kotowski, 2014-04-22 Pola Negri 1897 1987 rose from an impoverished childhood in Warsaw Poland to become one of early Hollywood's greatest stars After tuberculosis ended her career as a ballerina in 1912 she turned to acting and worked under legendary directors Max Reinhardt and Ernst Lubitsch in Germany Negri preceded Lubitsch to Hollywood where she quickly became a fan favorite thanks to her beauty talent and diva personality Known for her alluring sexuality and biting artistic edge she starred in more than sixty films and defined the image of the cinematic femme fatale Author Mariusz Kotowski brings the screen siren's story to English speaking audiences for the first time in this fascinating biography At the height of her fame Negri often portrayed exotic and mysterious temptresses headlining in such successes as The Spanish Dancer 1923 and Forbidden Paradise 1924 before returning to Europe in the 1930s The devastating effects of World War II soon drove her back to the United States where she starred in Hi Diddle Diddle 1943 and pursued her vaudeville career before retiring from the entertainment industry Kotowski also illuminates Negri's dramatic personal life detailing her numerous love affairs including her engagement to Charlie Chaplin and her romance with Rudolph Valentino as well as her multiple marriages This long overdue biography not only paints a detailed portrait of one classic Hollywood's most intriguing stars and the film industry's original Jezebel but also explores the link between Hollywood and European cinema during the interwar years The Masterpieces & ABC Series Osian's (Firm), 2007 Sales catalog of an art collection Theatre World 2008-2009 Ben Hodges, 2009-11-01 Scenes from the plays and portraits of leading actors accompany a statistical record of the current season      The Philosophy of Computer Games John Richard Sageng, Hallvard J Fossheim, Tarjei Mandt Larsen, 2012-07-10 Computer games have become a major cultural and economic force and a subject of extensive academic interest Up until now however computer games have received relatively little attention from philosophy Seeking to remedy this the present collection of newly written papers by philosophers and media researchers addresses a range of philosophical questions related to three issues of crucial importance for understanding the phenomenon of computer games the nature of gameplay and player experience the moral evaluability of player and avatar actions and the reality status of the gaming environment By doing so the book aims to establish the philosophy of computer games as an important strand of computer games research and as a separate field of philosophical inquiry The book is required reading for anyone with an academic or professional interest in computer games and will also be of value to readers curious about the philosophical issues raised by contemporary digital culture      3-D Revolution Ray Zone, 2012-07-06 Stereoscopic cinema began in the early 19th century and exploded in the 1950s in Hollywood Its status as an enduring genre was confirmed in 2009 by the success of 3 D movie Avatar      Theatre World 2005-2006: The Most Complete Record of the American Theatre John Willis, Ben Hodges, 2008-07-01 Now in its 62nd year Theatre World provides a complete statistical and pictorial record of the Broadway and off Broadway theatre season Each entry includes complete cast lists producers and directors authors and composers opening dates plot synopses and biographical information      Possible Worlds in Video Games: From Classic Narrative to Meaningful Actions Antonio José Planells de la Maza, 2017-11-21 In current digital games classic fictional worlds are transformed into ludofictional worlds spaces rich in characters and emotions that are especially affected by the intervention of a player In this book we propose a model inspired by the Semantics of Fiction and Possible Worlds which is oriented to the analysis of video games as integrated systems      Exploiting Chemical Diversity for Drug Discovery Paul A Bartlett, Michael Entzeroth, 2007-10-31 Conceptual and technological advances in chemistry and biology have transformed the drug discovery process Evolutionary pressure among the diverse scientific and engineering disciplines that contribute to the identification of biologically active compounds has resulted in synergistic improvements at every step in the process Exploiting Chemical Diversity for Drug Discovery encompasses the many components of this transformation and presents the current state of the art of this critical endeavour From the theoretical and operational considerations in generating a collection of compounds to screen to the design and implementation of high capacity and high quality assays that provide the most useful biological information this book provides a comprehensive overview of modern approaches to lead identification Beginning with an introductory overview subsequent chapters address topics that include the design of chemical libraries and methods for optimizing their diversity automated and accelerated chemistry high throughput assay design and detection techniques and strategies for data analysis and property optimization Written by experts in the field both academic and industrial and illustrated in full colour this book provides an excellent overview for current practitioners and will also serve as a stimulating resource for future generations. Researchers in organic and medicinal chemistry, the biological and pharmacological sciences as well as those interested in allied computational and engineering disciplines will value the comprehensive and up to date coverage. Interdisciplinarity in International Relations Valerii Kopiika, Anton Filipenko, Oleksii Toporkov, 2025-01-10. This edited collection is a result of the multi year research work of Ukrainian scientists and researchers in the field of interdisciplinarity which provides a unique and in depth view of the problems of modern society ranging from political science and economics to culture and art. This study is focused on interdisciplinarity as a global trend in research and education. The book addresses specific problems using an interdisciplinary approach in the fields of international relations, international economic relations, international law, international business and international communications providing a better understanding of the issues arising in the field and showcasing the potential of the interdisciplinary approach in international relations. On-Demand Culture Chuck Tryon, 2013-07-18. The movie industry is changing rapidly due in part to the adoption of digital technologies. Distributors now send films to theaters electronically. Consumers can purchase or rent movies instantly online and then watch them on their high definition televisions, their laptops or even their cell phones. Meanwhile social media technologies allow independent filmmakers to raise money and sell their movies directly to the public. All of these changes contribute to an on demand culture, a shift that is radically altering film culture and contributing to a much more personalized viewing experience. Chuck Tryon offers a compelling introduction to a world in which movies have become digital files. He navigates the complexities of digital delivery to show how new modes of access, online streaming services like YouTube or Netflix, digital downloads at iTunes, the popular Redbox DVD kiosks in grocery stores and movie theaters offering digital projection of such 3 D movies as Avatar are redefining how audiences obtain and consume motion picture entertainment. Tryon also tracks the reinvention of independent movies and film festivals by enterprising artists who have built their own fundraising and distribution models online. Unique in its focus on the effects of digital technologies on movie distribution, On Demand Culture offers a corrective to address the rapid changes in the film industry now that movies are available at the click of a button. Conflicting Masculinities Katherine Byrne, Julie Anne Taddeo, James Leggott, 2018-06-14. Never before has period drama offered viewers such an assortment of complex male characters from transported felons and syphilitic detectives to shell shocked soldiers and gangland criminals. Neo Victorian Gothic fictions like Penny Dreadful represent masculinity at its darkest. Poldark and Outlander have refashioned the romantic hero and anti heritage series like Peaky Blinders portray masculinity in crisis at moments when the patriarchy was being bombarded by forces like World War I, the rise of first wave feminism and the breakdown of Empire. Scholars of film, media, literature and history explore the very different types of maleness offered by contemporary television and show how the intersection of class, race, history and masculinity in period dramas has come to hold such broad appeal to twenty first century audiences. Encyclopedia of Human Computer Interaction Ghaoui,
