The Tombstone in Israel's Military Cemetery since 1948 Yossi Katz,2014-06-18 Military cemeteries are one of the most prominent cultural landscapes of Israel Their story reflects largely the main social processes that Israeli society has been undergoing since the War of Independence 1948 until today Until the end of the 1970s the military tombstones and their surroundings were uniform and equal according to rules set by the State However since the 1980s families of the fallen soldiers started to add on the tombstone personal expressions as well as personal objects photographs military artifacts etc Thus the military tombstone and the Israeli military cemetery became one of the expressions of the dramatic transformation from a society which emphasized the importance of the collective to a society which intensifies the significance of the individual The book is based on many archival documents as well as

H. Bavinck, 2019-07-30 Scripture testifies that in the work of Jesus Christ the power of Satan sin and death has been broken Yet on and on the ages roll and wars rage humans destroy one another and themselves and natural evils such as earthquakes and tsunamis occur We seem to suffer what J H Bavinck calls the great delay still awaiting Christ's final victory In this illuminating survey of the book of Revelation Bavinck examines the status of the church and the world in the times of the end but before the final finish Bavinck suggests the church is based on its mission to show the way of God and share his good news in the world This mission occurs in a world claimed by Christ's victory but still marked by the demonic and human hubris Revelation is a literature that discloses the church's perennial challenges in a time claimed and won by Christ yet still resistant to his lordship The book peels back the veil to expose a battle not only on earth but in the heavens and assures the sometimes faltering church that it is not forgotten and Christ's victory is certain Bavinck centers his account of Revelation in its chapter 12 the strange woman who is crowned and yet haunted and hunted driven to the edge of civilization He sees in this woman the bearer of a child a figure of the church that bears its child and Lord Jesus Christ Like the woman the church in these times between the times is both crowned as God's royalty and often scorned by the world      Sunshine, conducted
