Weems,Dominique C. Hill,Durell M. Callier,2022-07-05 Performative Intergenerational Dialogues of a Black Quartet promotes the importance of intergenerational Black dialogue as a collaborative spirit making across race genders sexualities and cultures to bridge time and space The authors enter this dialogue in a crisis moment a crisis moment at the confluence of a pandemic the national political transition of leadership in the United States the necessary rise of Black Indigenous and People of Color activism in the face of the continued murders of unarmed Black and queer people by police And as each author mourns the loss of loved ones who have left us through illness the contiguity of time or murder we all hold tight to each other and to memory as an act of keeping them alive in our hearts and actions remembrance as an act of resistance so that the circle will be unbroken But they also come together in the spirit of hope the hope that bleeds the borders between generations of Black teacher artist scholars the hope that we find in each other s joy and laughter and the hope that comes when we hear both stories of struggle and strife and stories of celebration and smile that lead to possibilities and potentialities of our collective being and becoming as a people So the authors offer stories of witness resistance and getting over stories that serve as a road map from Black history and heritage to a Black futurity that is mythic and imagined but that can also be actualized and embodied now This book will be of interest to scholars students and activists in a wide range of disciplines across the social sciences and performance studies Symbolism 2020 Rüdiger Ahrens,Florian Klaeger,Klaus

Stierstorfer,2020-12-07 This special anniversary volume of Symbolism explores the nexus between symbolic signification and the future from an interdisciplinary perspective How contributors ask has the future been variously rendered in symbolic terms How do symbols and symbolic reference shape our ideas of the future To what extent are symbols constitutive of futures and to what extent do they restrain communication about what is possible and the imagination of fundamental change Moreover how have symbolic practices shaped not only artistic representations of the future but also scientific attempts at forecasting and modelling it What then is the relevance of symbolism for negotiations of the future in cultural and academic production In essays ranging from literary and film studies to the philosophy of art and ecological modelling the volume seeks to lay groundwork in theorizing and historicising symbols of the future as much as the future of symbolism Women in Christianity in the Modern Age Lisa Isherwood,Megan Clay,2021-12-30 Women in Christianity in the Modern Age examines the role of women in Christianity in the 20th and early 21st Centuries This edited volume includes eight important contributions from academics in the field The modern era has been an age of social and religious upheaval and the ravages of global warfare and changes to women s role in society have made the examination of the place of women in religion a key question in theology From theological concerns engagements with the biblical texts by feminist and anti feminist theologians the modern role of Mary and women saints to political and social debates on women s ministry and place in society and cultural shifts as expressed through theologically inspired artwork by women Women in Christianity in the Modern Age provides an overview and in depth studies of a tumultuous and changing era This insightful text will be of key interest to students and scholars in Religion and Cultural Studies
