John Douglas Borthwick

Long Way In A Short Time 1850-1910:

Blockbusters of Victorian Theater, 1850-1910 Paul Fryer, 2023-11-23 This edited collection of essays details a wide ranging selection of some of the most sensationally successful theatre productions of the long Victorian era the real blockbusters of the age Ranging from the world of operetta and music hall to spectacular drama and sensational melodrama the productions included provide the reader with definitive proof that the phenomenon of the smash hit show is not restricted to modern Broadway This is a world that encompassed the ground breaking stage technology of Ben Hur the wide political impact of Uncle Tom s Cabin and the sheer creative originality of L'Enfant Prodigieux Supporting the star system productions featured some of the greatest names of the period Sir Henry Irving Sir Johnston Forbes Robertson James O'Neill and Dion Boucicault This was the very dawning of a new media age which saw many of the productions transfer to the new world of silent cinema for the very first time

Victorian Spectacular Theatre 1850-1910 Michael R. Booth, 2015-07-24 Originally published in 1981 This study concentrates on one aspect of Victorian theatre production in the second half of the nineteenth century the spectacular which came to dominate certain kinds of production during that period A remarkably consistent style it was used for a variety of dramatic forms although surrounded by critical controversy The book considers the theories and practice of spectacle production as well as the cultural and artistic movements that created the favourable conditions in which spectacle could dominate such large areas of theatre for so many years It also discusses the growth of spectacle and the taste of the public for it examining the influence of painting archaeology history and the trend towards realism in stage production An explanation of the working of spectacle in Shakespeare pantomime and melodrama is followed by detailed reconstructions of the spectacle productions of Irving's Faust and Beerbohm Tree's King Henry VIII

Gender and the Rhetoric of Modernity in Spanish America, 1850-1910 Lee Skinner, 2018-10-01 This ambitious volume shows how nineteenth century Spanish American writers used the discourses of modernity to envision the place of women at all levels of social and even political life in the modern utopian nation Looking at texts ranging from novels and essays to newspaper articles and advertisements and with special attention to public and private space domesticity education technology and work Skinner identifies gender as a central concern at every level of society

Ritter, Jon L. Wakelyn, 1989-09-26 It was a time of civil war and economic shift from an agrarian to an industrial society for the 1 390 speakers of state houses of representatives profiled in this unique biographical dictionary The political climate and characteristics of the politicians as a group are surveyed in introductory material This is followed by biographical entries which include a list of sources The cumulated bibliography arranged by state is valuable There is no other such directory Library Journal On the whole it is a useful compilation providing a starting point for research into the lives of a cross section of legislators in this period A necessary purchase for research libraries recommended to all academic libraries with strong collections in state history Choice During the years 1850 1910 the United States evolved from an agrarian to an industrial political economy By the end of the century industrialization has shifted the entire political system toward national government power beginning a trend that continues today An understanding of the importance of state government and in particular of the lower houses of the legislatures at this time is crucial to an understanding of how American politics was transformed in the second half of the nineteenth century This study compares the speakers of these influential nineteenth century American political bodies and focuses on the legislative issues of the period The largest collection of biographical data of its kind to date the book profiles the 1 390 speakers in the period from 1850 to 1910 The collective career analysis of the individuals covered provides an unprecedented exploration of the socioeconomic issues the governmental processes and the political behavior of the times to allow a more thorough understanding of the transition from an agrarian to an industrial state This comprehensive study of state political power will provide fresh insight into the American legislative system of the latter half of the nineteenth century and will be of special value to scholars of American political history and political science A Dictionary of Slang and Unconventional English Eric Partridge, 2006-05-02 The definitive work on the subject this Dictionary available again in its eighth edition gives a full account of slang and unconventional English over four centuries and will entertain and inform all language lovers The One Best Way? Tasnim Nathoo, Aleck Ostry, 2011-04-07 In recent years breastfeeding has been prominently in the public eye in relation to debates on issues ranging from parental leave policies work family balance public decency the safety of our food supply and public health concerns such as health care costs and the obesity epidemic Breastfeeding has officially been considered the one best way for feeding infants for the past 150 years of Canadian history This book examines the history and evolution of breastfeeding policies and practices in Canada from the end of the nineteenth century to the turn of the twenty first The authors historical approach allows current debates to be situated within a broader social political cultural and economic context Breastfeeding shifted from a private matter to a public concern at the end of the nineteenth century Over the course of the next century the best way to feed infants was often scientifically or politically determined and guidelines for mothers shifted from one generation to the next Drawing upon government reports academic journals archival sources and interviews with policy makers and breastfeeding advocates the authors trace trends patterns ideologies and policies of breastfeeding in Canada United States Investor ,1910

Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly,2013-12-04 First published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Biography of a Book: Henry Lawson's While the Billy Boils Paul Eggert,2013 Biography of a Book traces the life of an iconic Australian literary work in the lead up to and for a century after its initial publication Henry Lawson s 1896 collection While the Billy Boils Paul Eggert follows Lawson s gradual development of a pared back bush realism in the early 1890s as he struggled to forge a career writing short stories and sketches for the newspapers Lawson s famous collection came out at a decisive moment for the development of a fully professional Australian literary publishing industry then in its infancy in Sydney The volume s editing design and production were collaborative events that changed the feel and nature of Lawson s writing He had to give ground on his texts and their sequencing The collection went on to be reprinted and repackaged countless times Its production and reception histories act like a geological cross section revealing the contours of successive cultural formations in Australia In unravelling the life of Lawson s classic work Eggert s book historical approach challenges and clarifies established understandings of crucial moments in Australian literary history and of Lawson himself Time Longer Than Rope Charles M. Payne,Adam Green,2003-08 Time Longer than Rope unearths the ordinary roots of extraordinary change demonstrating the depth and breadth of black oppositional spirit and activity that preceded the civil rights movement The diversity of activism covered by this collection extends from tenant farmers labor reform campaign in the 1919 Elaine Arkansas massacre to Harry T Moore s leadership of a movement that registered 100 000 black Floridians years before Montgomery and from women s participation in the Garvey movement to the changing meaning of the Lincoln Memorial Concentrating on activist efforts in the South key themes emerge including the underappreciated importance of historical memory and community building the divisive impact of class and sexism and the shifting interplay between individual initiative and structural constraints Publisher description
