Holden, 2013-01-08 In Benasní I Remember Dene Słíné Oral Histories with Morphological Analysis Josh Holden presents twelve

autobiographical narratives about cultural change from Dene S in elders in an Aboriginal community in northern Saskatchewan Canada In ten interviews and two monologues the speakers recount their 20th century the rhythms of traditional life the catastrophe of epidemics and language loss the dizzying technological changes their ambivalence over the past and their anxieties for the future Accompanying the original Dene texts and free translation is an analytical interlinear gloss applying rigorous morphological and semantic principles to the parsing and glossing of words The innovative interlinearization distinguishes grammar from visible etymologies The volume contains a morphological sketch to illuminate grammatical issues in the interlinearization

Cognitive Lexicography Carolin Ostermann, 2015-07-31 English lexicography and linguistics have always shared close ties yet the potential of cognitive linguistics for lexicography has only been hesitantly acknowledged in the literature This is what cognitive lexicography attempts to change by using insights gained in cognitive semantic research for the development of new dictionary features After a short survey of the history and practice of English monolingual learner lexicography as well as an outline of the relationship between linguistics and lexicography three new dictionary features are developed They cover three different cognitive semantic theories as well as three different parts of the monolingual dictionary entry each time for a new set of lexemes Frame semantics conceptual metaphor theory as well as cognitive conceptions of polysemy are used to create a new example section for agentive nouns a new defining structure for emotion terms and a new microstructural arrangement for particle entries Dictionary analyses on all as well as user studies on two of the features complement these suggestions The monograph thus presents a new approach to lexicography that incorporates into its description of lexical items how humans perceive and conceptualise language
