Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1978      Water Fluoridation, the Search and the Victory Frank James McClure, 1970      The Early Text of the New Testament Charles E. Hill, Michael J. Kruger, 2012-06-14 This book is about the transmission of the New Testament text in the second and third centuries of early Christianity It explores the world of manuscripts scribes and early Christian textual culture      Looking for Life John G. Lewis, 2005-04-30 Through exegetical studies of 1 Corinthians and Galatians John Lewis shows how Paul synthesises theology and ethics which interpreters frequently separate as integrated aspects of Christian thinking and living This fusion becomes evident in Paul's complex process of theological moral reasoning that lies beneath the surface of his letters for which we have coined the phrase the ethical reasoning The book also examines how Paul encourages his churches to apply this the ethical reasoning in the community practice of spiritual discernment a dialogical comparative process of reasoned reflection on behaviour and experience Through this practice of looking for life community members are led by the Spirit as they reason together attempting to associate the manifestations of new life with conduct that faithfully portrays Christ's self giving pattern This correlation of conduct with experience grounds Paul's own proclamation of Jesus Christ in word and deed It also becomes the foundation for believers faith and hope as they come to know Christ and experience the power of God Thus the book concludes that the practice of spiritual discernment by means of the ethical reasoning lies at the centre of Paul's religion      Looking through a Glass Bible A.K.M. Adam, Samuel Tongue, 2014-06-05 Some biblical interpreters' imaginations extend only as far as outlandish source theories or esoteric hypothetical audiences The interpretive energies let loose in Glasgow over the past decade or so however have produced a cadre of interpreters who defy the disciplinary mandates of biblical criticisms in favour of reading the Bible with imaginations both careful and carefree Infused with literary political art critical cinematic liturgical and other interests these essays display interpretive verve freed from the anxiety of disciplines with closely observed insights critical engagement with biblical texts and vivid inspiration from the cultural world within which they are set Here there is no gap between world and text but the intimate congeniality of close dear comfortable interpretive friends Contributors Ben Morse Hugh Pyper Alastair Hunter Hannah Strmmen Jonathan C P Birch Anna Fisk Kuloba Wabyanga Robert Samuel Tongue A K M Adam Abigail Pelham and the Religarts Collective with Yvonne Sherwood      A Looking-glass for Ladies Lisa Joy Pruitt, 2005 Lisa Joy Pruitt offers a new look at women's involvement in the mission movement with a welcome focus on the often overlooked antebellum era Most scholars have argued that the emergence of women as a dominant force in American Protestant missions in the late nineteenth century was an outgrowth of nascent feminist activism in the various denominations This new contribution suggests that the feminization of the later mission movement actually stemmed in large part from images of the degraded Oriental woman that popular evangelical literature had been circulating since the 1790s and that the increasing focus on and involvement of women was supported by male denominational leaders as an important strategy for reaching the world with the Christian gospel In the late eighteenth through the early nineteenth centuries popular evangelical literature began circulating descriptions of women of the Orient designed to illustrate the need of those women for the Christian gospel Such powerful and widely disseminated images demonstrated to young American women their relatively privileged position in society and throughout the nineteenth century led many to support the cause of missions with their money and sometimes their lives A belief in the desperate need of Oriental women for salvation and social uplift was largely responsible for feminizing the American Protestant foreign mission movement A Looking Glass for Ladies American Protestant Women and the Orient in the Nineteenth Century traces the creation and dissemination of images of women who lived in that part of the world known to nineteenth century Westerners as the Orient It examines the emotional power of those images to create sympathy in American women for their sisters in Asia That sympathy catalyzed many evangelical women and men to argue for vocational roles for women both married and single in the mission movement The book demonstrates the ways in which assumptions about the condition and needs of Oriental women shaped American evangelical women's self perceptions as well as the evangelizing strategies of the missionaries and their sending agencies

Scribal Harmonization in the Synoptic Gospels Cambry Pardee, 2019-01-14 In Scribal Harmonization Cambry G Pardee examines the earliest Greek manuscripts of the Synoptic Gospels for evidence that scribes altered the text of the Gospels either deliberately or inadvertently in ways that eliminated discrepancies between them The phenomenon of harmonization demonstrates that a scribe's memories of previous experiences with gospel traditions could have a powerful effect on the manuscripts that they produced This book assembles for the first time a catalogue of harmonizing variants from every manuscript of Matthew Mark and Luke from the fourth century and earlier Far from reducing the unique voices of the individual evangelists to a single melody the earliest scribes contributed new tones innovative strains and fascinating harmonies to the four fold gospel tradition

The Keystone, 1916 Studies on the Text of the New Testament and Early Christianity Daniel Gurtner, Juan Hernández, Jr., Paul Foster, 2015-09-29 The collection of essays focuses on the twin areas of research undertaken by Prof Michael W Holmes These are the sub disciplines of textual criticism and the study of the Apostolic Fathers The first part of the volume on textual criticism focuses on issues of method the praxis of editing and collating texts and discussions pertaining to individual variants The second part of the volume assembles essays on the Apostolic Fathers There is a particular focus on the person and writings of Polycarp since this is the area of research where Prof Holmes has worked most intensively Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1952 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873

But Their Faces Were All Looking Up Eric M.

Vanden Eykel,2016-12-01 This study of the Protevangelium of James explores the interrelationship of authors readers texts and meaning Its central aim is to better understand how the process of repetition gave rise to the narratives of the early Christian movement and how that process continued to fuel the creativity and imagination of future generations Divided into three parts Vanden Eykel addresses first specific episodes in the life of the Virgin consisting of Mary s childhood in the Jerusalem temple PJ 7 9 her spinning thread for the temple veil PJ 10 12 and Jesus birth in a cave outside Bethlehem PJ 17 20 The three episodes present a uniform picture of how the reader s discernment of intertexts can generate new layers of meaning and that these layers may reveal new aspects of the author s meaning some of which the author may not have anticipated The Furniture Journal ,1924 Invitation to Evangelism Timothy K. Beougher,2021-08-24 Essential guidance for a lifestyle of sharing God s good news with a lost world What exactly does it mean to evangelize in a Christian sense And how is such evangelizing supposed to be done Longtime pastor evangelist and professor of evangelism Timothy K Beougher answers these questions and more from theological historical and practical perspectives Beougher demonstrates God s goodness in evangelism through relatable anecdotes Bible teaching and encouraging instruction Invitation to Evangelism welcomes believers into the experience of stepping out in faith of behalf of people God loves Most Christians know that they should be sharing the good news of Jesus Christ with nonbelievers and most also know they aren t witnessing very well or even at all They need help internalizing the content of gospel proclamation and identifying the best way to go about making evangelism a natural part of their lives Invitation to Evangelism guides readers through the essential issues of the gospel message evangelism methods and witnessing models so they are ready and excited to move out in faith as everyday evangelists Beougher s biblical theological historical and practical teaching revolves around following essential aspects of being an evangelist Having compassion as the motivation for evangelism Understanding the good news of Jesus Christ Seeing lost people as persons God loves Relying on the power of the Holy Spirit Paving the way for new believers to share their faith eagerly with others In Search of Ancient Roots Kenneth J. Stewart,2017-10-31 Perceiving a disconnect between their Protestant tradition and ancient Christianity younger generations are abandoning evangelicalism for traditions that appear more rooted in the early church Surveying five centuries church history Ken Stewart argues for the rich Protestant connections to the Reformation and early Christianity The Search for Ultimate Reality Dan Lioy,2005 In analyzing the intertextuality between the Genesis and Johannine Prologues Dr Lioy maintains that both passages utilize polemical theology to refute distorted views of ultimate reality Furthermore he theorizes that the author of the Johannine Prologue deliberately reflected the structure and themes found in the Genesis Prologue to emphasize that the God man Jesus Christ created all things and is a new spiritual beginning for all who believe in Him Ultimate reality is found through faith in the Son The Mission of the Early Church to Jews and Gentiles Jostein Ådna,Hans Kvalbein,2000 This volume is based on a symposium held at the School of Mission and Theology in Stavanger Norway in 1998 on The Mission of the Early Church to Jews and Gentiles Four authors discuss the question of the mission to the Jewish people with particular regard to the gospel of Matthew and the Great Commission Further papers address different phases and aspects of early mission Finally the volume contains four essays relating to the Acts of the Apostles and to the Pauline letters American Lumberman ,1904 Why I Am a Christian Norman L. Geisler,Paul K. Hoffman,2006-12 Now with a new chapter on Why I Am Not a Muslim by an ex Muslim Why I Am a Christian is an even more helpful resource in our global times Signs, Wonders, and Gifts Jennifer Eyl,2019-06-03 In much of the scholarship on Paul activities such as speaking in tongues prophecy and miracle healings are either ignored or treated as singular occurrences Typically these practices are categorized in such a way that shields Paul and his followers from the influence of so called paganism In Signs Wonders and Gifts Jennifer Eyl masterfully argues that Paul did in fact engage in range of divinatory and wonder working practices that were widely recognized and accepted across the ancient Mediterranean Eyl redescribes reclassifies and recontextualizes Paul s repertoire vis vis such widespread similar practices Situating these activities within the larger framework of reciprocity that dominated human divine relationships in antiquity she demonstrates that divine powers and divine communication were bestowed as benefactions toward Paul and his gentile followers in proportion to their faithfulness and loyalty Modern Miller ,1912
